Case No.s: F-2018-00529, F-2018-00827,
F-2018-01063, & F-2018-01467

Michael Bekesha, Esq.
Judicial Watch, Inc.
425 Third Street, S.W., Suite 800
Washington, D.C. 20024

Dear Mr. Bekesha:

I refer you to our letter dated March 13, 2019, regarding the review of certain Department of State material under the Freedom of Information Act (the "FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552.

The review of potentially responsive records is ongoing and has resulted in the retrieval of twenty-three documents responsive to your request. After reviewing these documents, we have determined that one may be released to you in full and twenty-two may be released in part. The released material is enclosed.

All non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released. Where we have made excisions, the applicable exemptions are marked on the document. An enclosure provides information on FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material.

We will keep you advised as your case progresses. If you have any questions, you may contact Trial Attorney Christopher Hair at (202) 252-2541 or Christopher.Hair@usdoj.gov. Please refer to the case numbers cited above and the civil action number, 18-cv-968, in all correspondence regarding this case.

Sincerely,

Susan C. Weetman
Chief, Programs and Policies Division
Office of Information Programs and Services

Enclosures: As stated

Jonathan,
I won't be in DC the week of Christmas, but let's schedule lunch or dinner during the first week of January. I'm pretty open so anytime and day would be fine for me. Let's confirm it now and put it on the calendar.
Warmly,

Ariuna, let's set a date for lunch or dinner. I am pretty booked until Christmas week, but if you are, could get together on Monday December 22 or Tuesday December 23. Between now and then, except for Thanksgiving I am pretty much on the road, starting next Monday. Are you free either of those two days? Otherwise anytime in January!

Hi Jonathan,

Great to hear from you! I met Chris before so it's nice to hear that he is in DC. I'm in NY today and will take an 8 am shuttle back to DC tomorrow morning.

Chris - what time is convenient for you? I have lunch at 12.30 pm and meetings until 4 pm tomorrow. We can meet before my lunch or after my meetings. Please let me know.

Chris and Chris,

Advice is that you brief the country team. Looks to me like the country team would want to know about this as it could have implications for any lending arrangement with the IMF. The most recent country report (on line I can't provide link while on road from BB) lists the individuals involved. The report was approved by Markus Rodlauer, but I would try the mission chief first.

The IMF mission chief and WB country director (Koshy Mathal and Tina Puntsag respectively), which I found on the IMF/WB websites. Because this relates to an independent commercial dispute, it would be best that this not come in from or through any US official but be a straight-on request from you in light of impact on Mongolia and there need to know.

Chris, any chance that you could do it a little earlier? I definitely have a 9pm SVTC from the US Embassy, so anyplace near Grosvenor Square is desirable. And I have an 8pm phone call with Mr. Kerry at 8pm, that's still being worked through to a yes or no, I may not know until tomorrow. In that case, I'd need to be out of a nearby restaurant no later than 7:45pm. Apologies for the time squeeze, this kind of thing is not subject to my control.

These are often postponed as they depend on the availability of higher ranked people than I am at the NSC, but if we can do it early enough (6:30pm) should be fine. Will update Wednesday. Best from Bucharest, Jonathan

Nelson, Chris Steele, an old friend of mine, is in town for a couple of days and has time tomorrow. He's a former senior British intelligence officer focusing on former Soviet Union, with a number of US and European private sector clients these days for his London-based firm, Orbis. He was in my office catching up and it occurred to me there might be value for McClarty Global knowing him and his capabilities in terms of real time and longer term analysis of developments in that part of the world.

If you by chance you have interest in and time to meet him tomorrow, let me know, and I'll put him in touch with you directly. Look forward to catching up soon in any case,

Tony
I'm traveling to Albania later in February to arrange housing for the MEK refugees in Baghdad.
I wondered if we could meet in DC for a few minutes before my trip.
I'd like to discuss Albania, Iraq and this entire experience.
No rush but let me know availability.
Thanks

[Computer selected and disseminated without OSE editorial intervention] Libyan army asks Russia for weapons, hardware - newspaper

MOSCOW. Sept 28 (Interfax) - Libyan Army Commander Gen. Khalifa Haftar has sent messages to the Russian administration requesting supply of weapons and hardware, the newspaper Izvestia said on Wednesday.

According to the newspaper, the messages were delivered to the Russian side in the evening of September 26 by Haftar's special representative, Libyan Ambassador to Saudi Arabia Abdelbaset Al Badri. Special Representative of the Russian President for the Middle East and Africa, Deputy Foreign Minister Mikhail Bogdanov received the ambassador in Moscow.

"This meeting has actually happened. Al Badri paid a one-day visit to Moscow. His negotiations with Bogdanov highlighted lifting of the embargo and beginning of arms supplies. The Libyans have asked to supply both small arms and hardware, including aircraft. They have also urged Moscow to launch a military operation against Islamists in Libya, similar with the one underway in Syria," a source close to the Russian diplomatic circles told Izvestia.

Russian Ambassador to Libya Ivan Molotov said in late June that Russia would not supply arms to the Libyan authorities until related international restrictions were lifted.
