Opening

Tell me about yourself and why you want the job.

Greeting

thank you so much for taking the time to get to know me and to discuss my qualifications for <enter job here> opportunity.

What's your story?

Think of a personal story that you want to share; that speaks to your character; background; something that you are proud of; or a great customer service experience from your perspective.

Professional Wins!

Here you can talk about some professional development opportunities, special skills, training, credentials, education, etc. either completed or in-progress. Make sure to connect the dots to the job you want and feed them what they want to hear.
