

Kasey Marquardt

Training & Development – Minnesota

Overview:

Kasey graduated from Hamline University with a major in Communication Studies and a minor in Religion. In college Kasey was involved in hockey, Hamline undergraduate student congress, and was a member of the student athletic advisory committee. She was known as a “go-getter” by her peers.

Kasey is a successful outside sales representative for a privately held Minnesota company. When her Aunt Kim formed the company HR Smarts, Kasey expressed an interest in expanding her career into training and development.

Kasey was tapped into by HR Smarts while they were building the workshop All for One! for Special Olympics Minnesota. All for One! focuses in on the topics of 5 generations at work, communication styles and leadership. Kasey shared her insights from a Millennial’s perspective helping relate the learning objectives to the classroom activities. She added value by recommending modifications to the interactive curriculum.

Within a few weeks of the launch of All for One! Kasey had the chance to deliver a section of the class to rave reviews. Kasey said, “I am so glad I jumped in – took a chance – tried something new.” Kasey has laid the ground work for involvement in building and delivering future customized curriculum for HR Smarts. Go get ‘um Kasey!

Kasey was born in New Prague and grew up with her older sister Jenna on Cedar Lake. Kasey enjoyed their family activities including: skating, fishing, swimming, water skiing and boating. During High School she participated in hockey, show choir, volleyball and track & field.

Kasey likes being involved in the community and volunteers her time by coaching Mahtomedi High School hockey. Kasey lives in Minnetonka with her toy goldendoodle Finely.
