Spotlight on IT:

Understanding IT as a function of your business with Payco

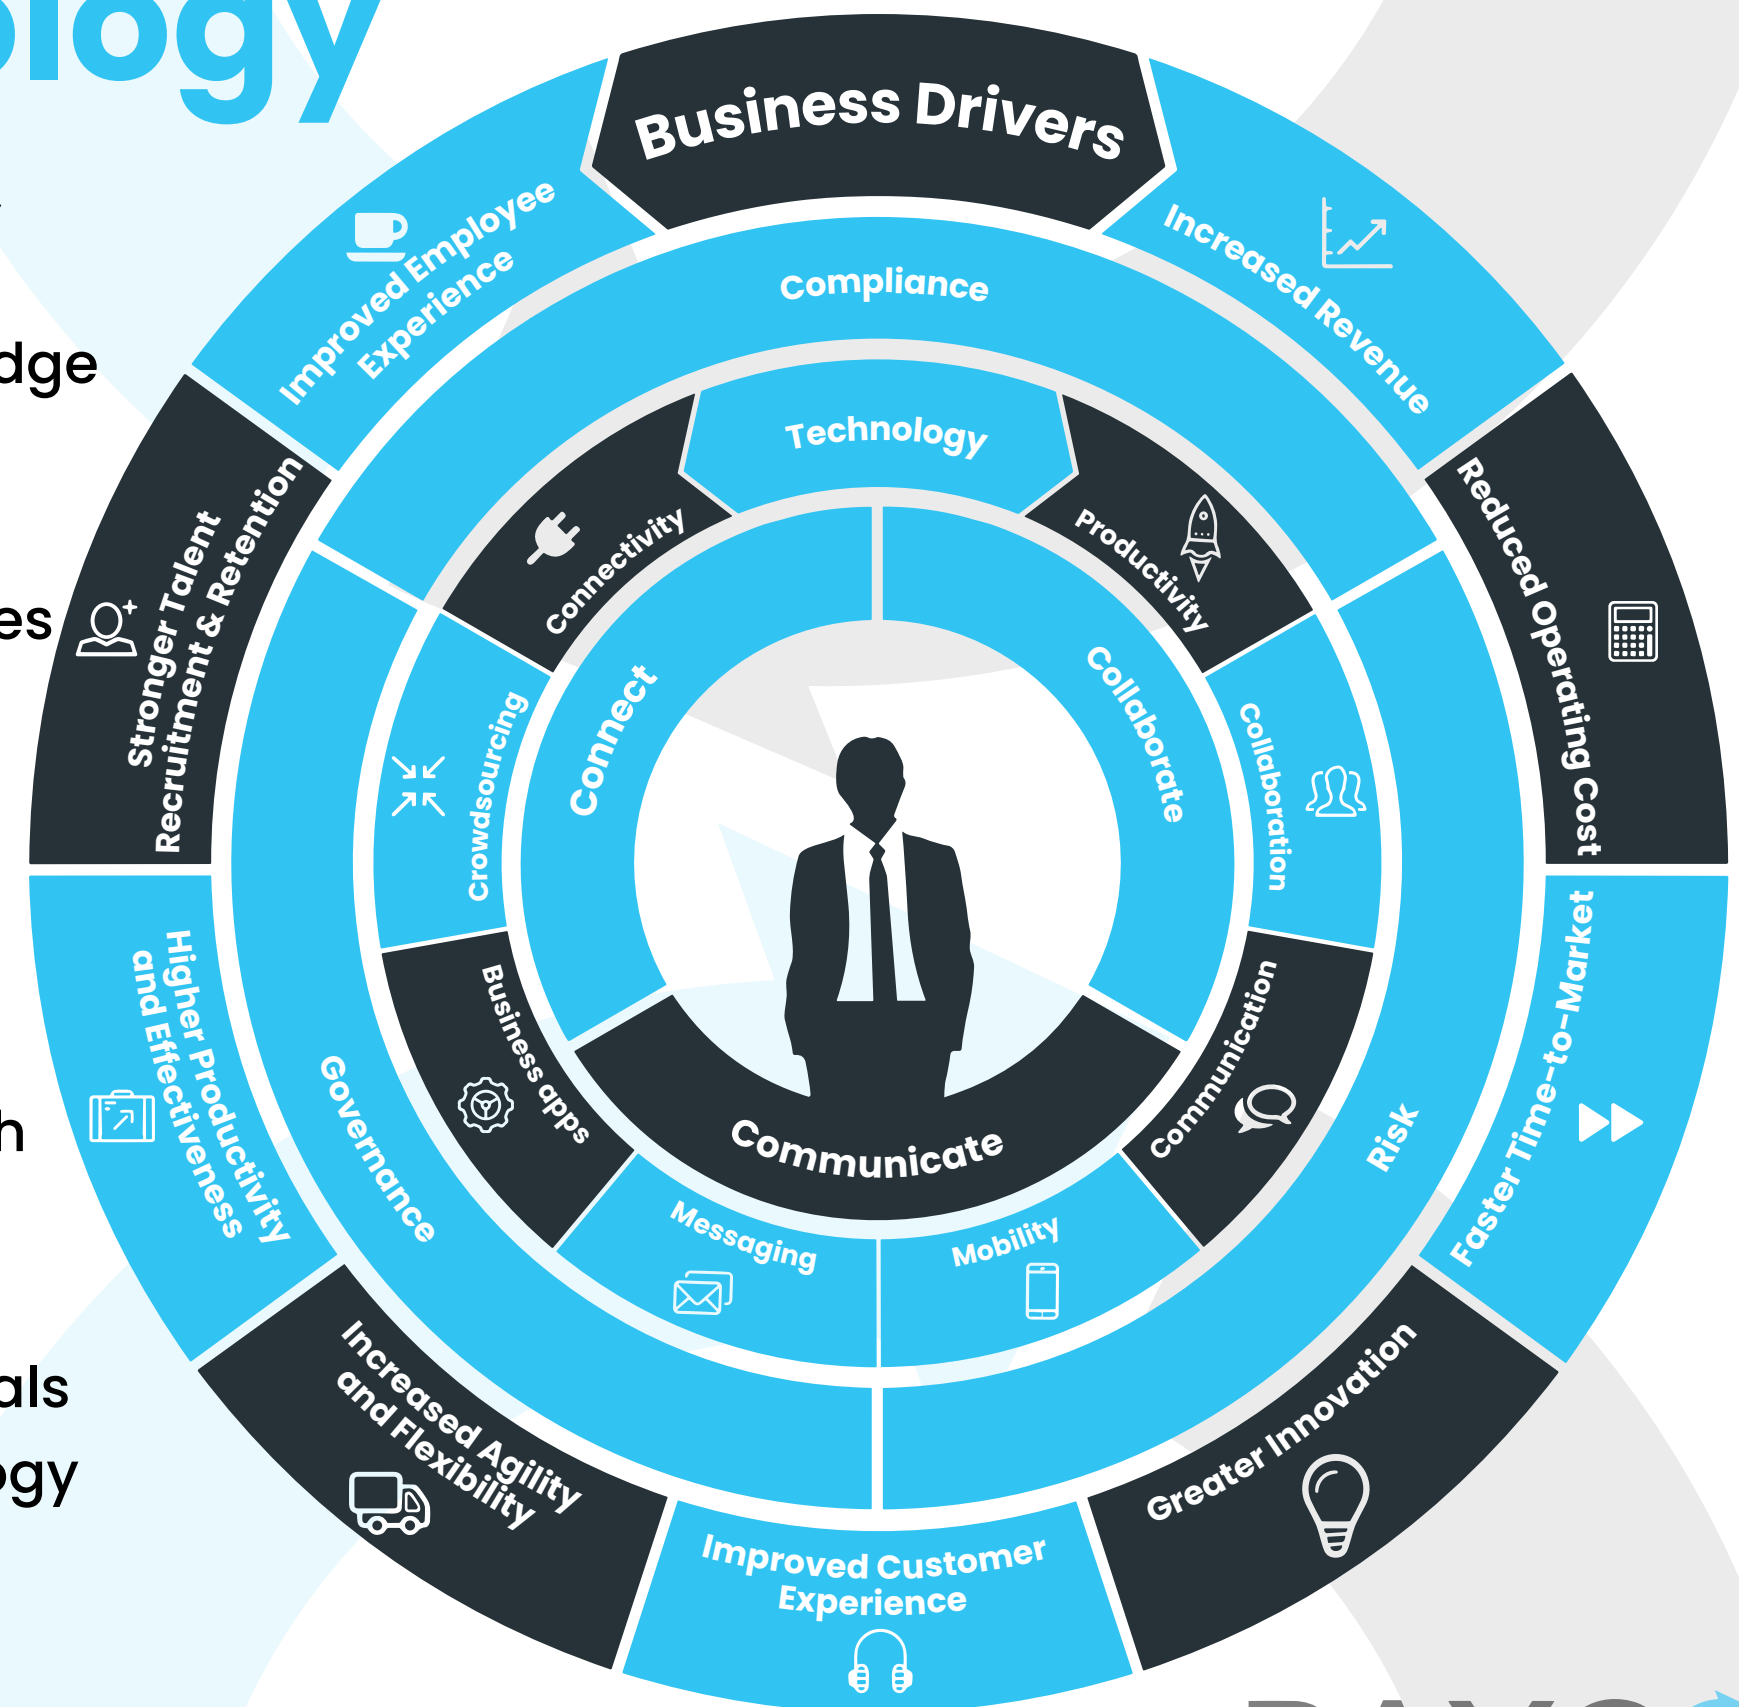

Evolving Client Operations Through Technology

An employee does their job by communicating, collaborating, and connecting with others to strengthen relationships and increase knowledge sharing.

Technology is the tool-box a workforce leverages to get their jobs done.

Successful technology implementation requires the right partner to ensure its effective use and maximize its value. Partnering with the right IT provider drives the efficiency and growth businesses are looking to achieve.

Ultimately, business outcomes, targets, and goals are directly influenced by how well the technology performs and integrates into operations.

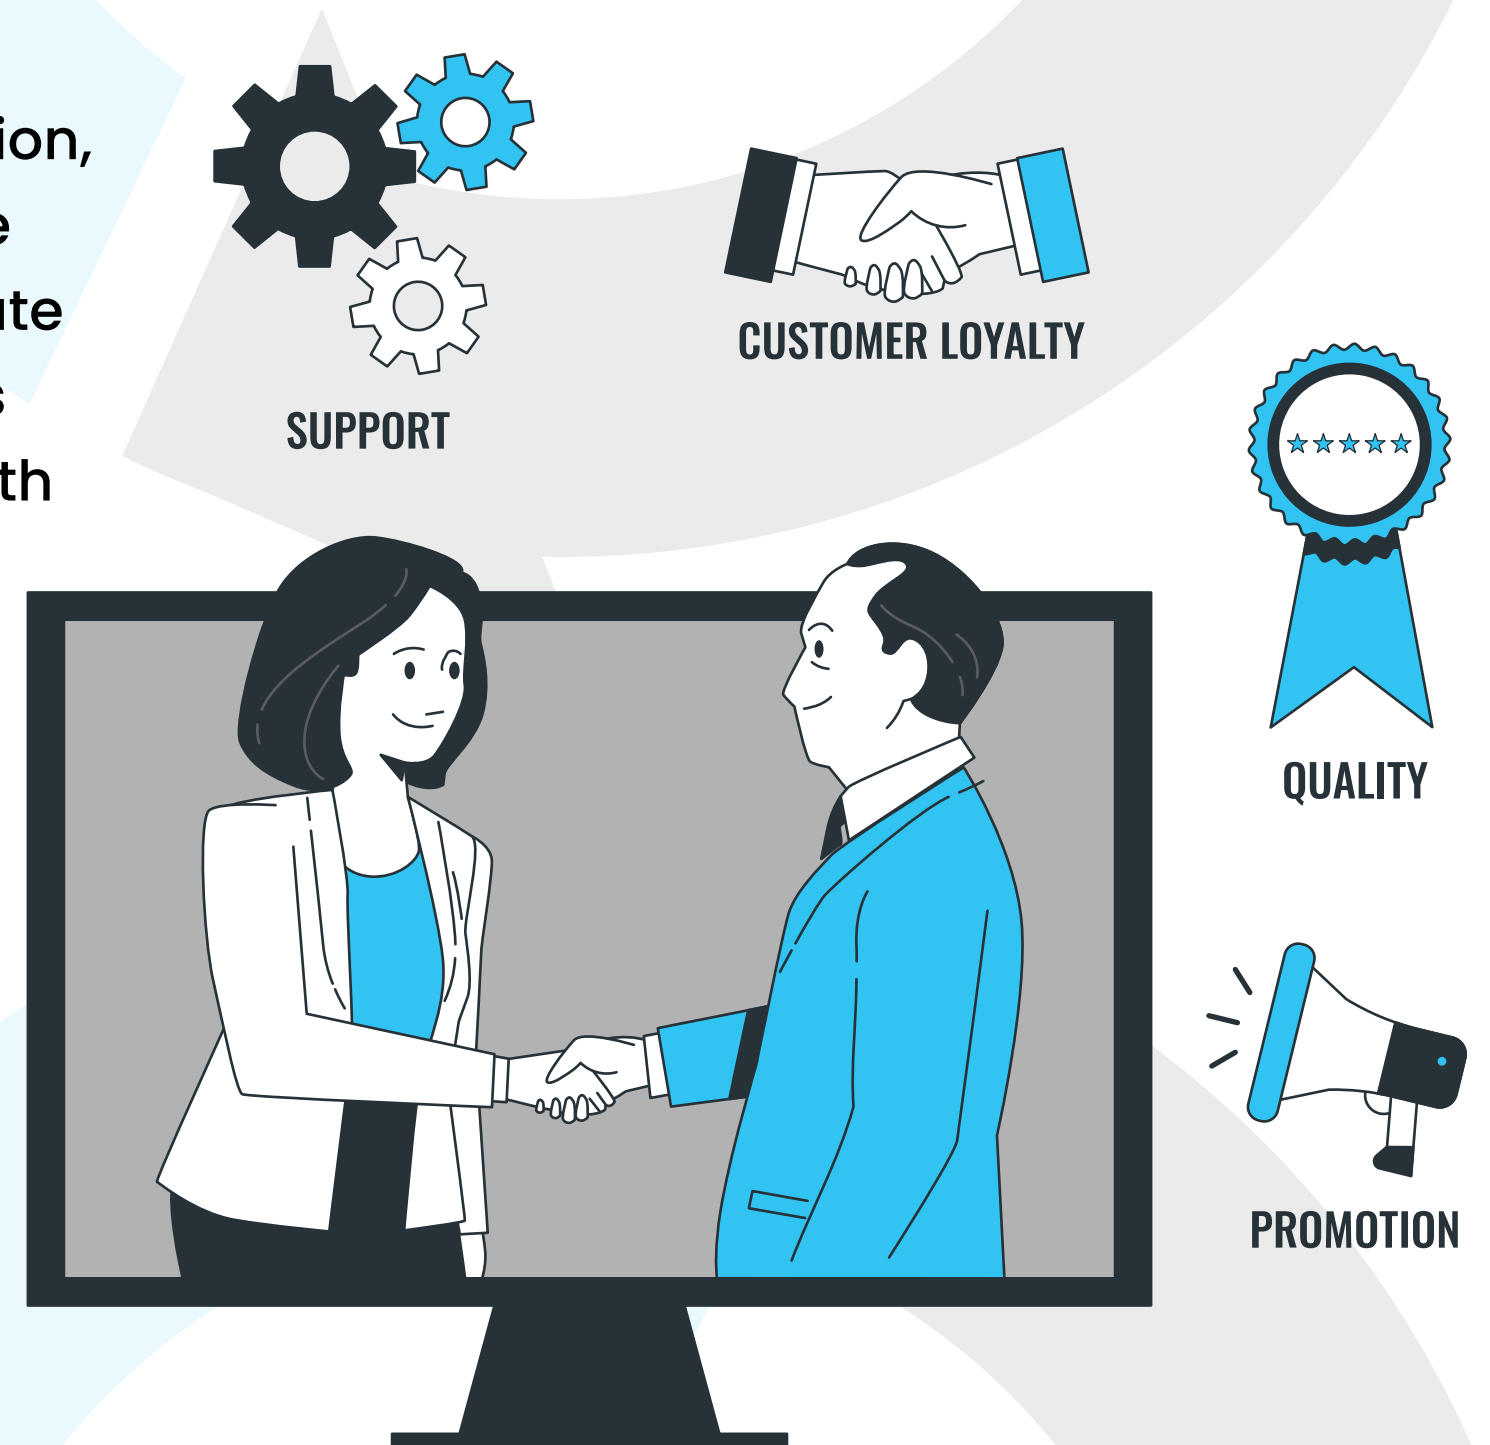

Our Key Differentiator

Customer Care and Teamwork

Our key differentiator lives within our team at Payco. Whether its customer service, technology implementation, business development or finance and lending. We have the experience and in-depth knowledge it takes to create customer success. By partnering with Payco, our clients allow us to navigate the financial and technological path to long term unprecedented growth and profitability.

Our team is comprised of industry experts representing decades of experience in the following verticals:

- Payment Processing & ACH
- Finance and Lending Solutions
- Point of Sale & ERP Consulting
- IT Services and Networking
- Business Management & Ops
- Software Development and Programming

We remain agnostic, transparent and focused purely on your needs as a business

Payco Philosophy and Code of Conduct

A Win-Win approach is the only way we do business. The more money we can make for a client through advisory and technology implementation ensures a long-term relationship and growth for both companies.

Our code of Conduct:

- We will remain humble and frugal with our client solutions
- We will ensure the most advanced, efficient, and cost-effective solution available
- We will tell the truth, avoid creating unrealistic expectations and be sincere
- We will go above and beyond for each client.
- We will not be diverted by overcharging, using unethical tactics or contracts.
- We will focus on hard work and patience as they are the surest path to success
- We will never speak ill of any company or individual
- We promise to focus and make the most of everyday
- We will push forward through all adversity, obstacles and commit to growth
- We commit to reading, learning, and growing from every experience
- We will remain transparent and straight forward in all activity and communication
- We will give back to our clientele and community

Growing a business in a fast-moving world is challenging. Let us help you navigate the path to success by giving you access to the best tools and partnerships available
