World of Stone.

1975

it seems so long ago
when you were sad and so alone
she came into your life and made it all worthwhile
she had a heart of Gold.
She took you from a world of Stone.

She gave you eyes that could not sleep loving arms where you could sleep.
Kept you wrapped so warm and deep spoilt you from Reality.

Beyond your wildest Dreams
you never thought would come true that life you left behind had so far gone you thought you broke her heart of Gold.
Sent you back to your world of Stone.

you had it handed down so sweet Kept you lost deep in your dream, you took it far too easily
now you will face Reality

Sad to see what you've become,
now you're lost and all alone.
She's gone out of your life and found someone worth while,
She's found her heart of Gold.
you're back in your world of Stone.
Back in your world of Stone.
Back in your world of Stone.
