

it's alright

1976

we're getting on fine we're doing alright there is no problem we cannot fight there's nothing i could ever wish to changed im overjoyed Because you feel the same.

There is no chains we can't go wrong, of Better Days There's even more to come you mean so much you're all i'll ever need.
The longer we're apart the more i feel.

it's alright, never fear of losing me,
it's alright, forever you can rely on me,
im feeling so high,
no one's going to get me down,
and even if they try They'll Be To Blame we won't Be found.

if Time should Tell our love's untrue
one thing's for sure i'll always care for you.
They're Telling you, you couldn't understand,
for how we feel you'd swear they think we planned.

it's alright, never fear of losing me,
it's alright, you'll Be The only one you'll see.
im feeling so high,
i wonder what the future holds.
im sure as Times goes By
The Magic of These Days won't go.
The magic of These Days won't go.
