LITTLE LEAF

I'm just a little leaf,
I'm all worn and torn,
I've been used on many pages,
I've been copied and drawn,
I've been living on the ground for very, very long,
Sitting here for ages and being crushed under pages,
And at the end of the day I'm all crumbled away.

By Elaine Harrington
Age 9