

1976

When you came to me.
your smile i had seen
only in my Dreams
in Darkness i had been forever so it seemed
until you came to me.

Beneath The sand i found
no one cared to know me
in Deeper i was sinking Losing heart in calling
until you came to me.

where would i ever be without you
The one to Guide and follow me through.
i've reached you with heart and Soul awoken to The Dream i'd been sleeping for.

where would i ever be without you
The only one i can relate to you touch me with heart and Soul.
Taught me how to laugh, so much i've never known.

into my Darkest days
you came and filled with light.
you gave my eyes sight
To walk with you through life.
when you came to me.
