NARRATOR

There are many beliefs to what happens to you after you die. From going to heaven. or Hell. to just plain darkness and no longer existing... but the one we are focusing on this time ... is reincarnation.

Our story begins in a world much different than your own. A world full of magic. A world full of adventure. A world full of war.

We are just coming upon the reincarnation of one such soul. From The world you know as Earth. to a new world. sadly... during the process .. he lost his memory by mistake and has no idea where he is.
