NewJeans has officially rebranded as NJZ

A New Era Begins?

Big news for NewJeans fans—the group has officially rebranded as NJZ! While the reason behind the name change hasn't been revealed, fans are buzzing with speculation. Could this signal a new era for the group? 🙄

NJZ Opens Up In CNN Interview

K-pop's rising group NJZ sat down with CNN for their first exclusive interview since rebranding. Formerly known as NewJeans, the group spoke candidly about their transition, the challenges they've faced, and their exciting future. Member Hanni reassured fans, saying, "We are working hard to resolve everything so that we can go back to normal." Despite the legal dispute with their former label, NJZ remains focused on their music and upcoming performances.

The group is set to make their highly anticipated debut as NJZ at ComplexCon Hong Kong on March 23, 2025, where they will perform a brand-new song.

LISA RELEASES NEW SINGLE "BORN AGAIN" FEATURING DOJA CAT & RAYE

Lisa, renowned member of BLACKPINK, has unveiled her latest single, "Born Again," featuring collaborations with American rapper Doja Cat and British singer RAYE. Released on February 6, 2025, this track serves as the fourth single from her upcoming debut solo album, Alter Ego, set to drop on February 28.

"Born Again" is a disco-pop track infused with elements of electro-pop and britpop, highlighting the versatility of all three artists. The song delves into themes of personal growth and empowerment, with Lisa's vocals, RAYE's seductive tones, and Doja Cat's signature rap style creating a harmonious blend.

The accompanying music video, directed by Bardia Zeinali, is a visual homage to powerful women, featuring the trio embodying Greek goddesses and warriors in sophisticated, medieval-inspired settings.

This release offers a glimpse into Lisa's forthcoming album, Alter Ego, which will showcase 12 tracks across five different versions, each representing distinct facets of her persona. Fans can anticipate a diverse musical journey as Lisa steps into her solo career.

In addition to her musical endeavors, Lisa is set to make her acting debut in the third season of "The White Lotus," premiering on February 16, 2025, where she will portray the character Mook.

Despite her solo projects, Lisa remains committed to BLACKPINK, with the group planning new achievements in the near future.
