

Fast Start to Neurodiversity Awareness

The Independence Hub has a simple message about neurodiversity and its special place in the insurance industry.

1. Insurance depends on neurodivergent talent.
2. More adults find out every day they are neurodivergent, usually through their children.
3. MINOR accommodations to diet, workstation, and personal expectations can YIELD tremendous results.

Networking, Team Building, Golf

The Dormie Network, a collection of immersive golf facilities, offers executives interested in neurodiversity and golf a private retreat to get up to speed quickly on a topic every leader should understand.

We are accepting applications from qualified leaders for this custom experience. Attendees leave understanding the business case for neurodiversity and how to get started at their firm. To learn more and create your own custom experience, contact Mike here:
