

It Brings Me Back to You

It was the dream and the feeling
That brings me back to you
We are born yet again to reignite the truth
It was framed from before
An ever changing shore
It's the need and the speed
That brings me back to you

Ah Ah Ah Ah Eee

Now we are here again
Undoubtedly with our friends
Making history
Remember the lives you've had before

It's the air and the fire
That brings me back to you
Sets adrift a desire
To take and guide you through
If there's a star of knowing
Where light has been renewed
It's your flame and your glowing
It brings me back to you

Ah Ah Ah Ah Eee

Our work is never done
Reflections of the sun
And I wish for you
Happiness for ever more

Ah Ah Ah Ah Eee

And as I pass away
I'll remember the call to stay

under your wing
until it is time to fly
