Eternal an inferno
The undeniable one undying love
Exuding not intruding
Soothing to be feeling your
Quintessential love
May all beings be happy
May all things feel compassion
May all beings be happy
May all things feel lasting
Quintessential love

So connected unaffected
Storms may come they pass nothing ever lasts
All consuming ever blooming
Always dying to be sharing in your
Quintessential love
Somehow you know
Don't have to be shown
Your ego will have to let go
Eventually essentially
Love's skin may die surely you and I
Everlasting through our passing
Always adoring we're reborn into
Quintessential love
