

Christopher John "C.J." Czaia is a practicing attorney, community activist, and longtime advocate for the Hispanic community.

As the founder of UnidosNow, C.J. launched a nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering Latino youth through education and civic engagement.

C.J. has also served as chair of the Manatee County Democratic Party, appears frequently as a legal and political commentator, and advocated for immigration reform, DACA protections, and community empowerment. From the courtroom to the community, C.J. remains committed to defending individual rights, promoting opportunity, and leading with purpose.

C.J. CZAIA

Attorney Miluska Zavala-More is a skilled attorney with Dubrule & Nowel, PLLC, a full-service immigration law firm specializing in family reunification, removal defense, and guiding clients through the immigration process from start to finish. Miluska has over 17 years of experience in legal financial services and client advocacy. Born and raised in Peru, and based in Bradenton, Florida, Miluska is committed to guiding clients through complex legal landscapes with integrity, empathy, and a deep commitment to safeguarding their rights.

MILUSKA ZAVALA-
MORE

C.J. and Miluska will be discussing challenges and concerns of the immigrant population in the United States under the Trump and DeSantis admin-