HAIRCUTS EXPLAINED!

Style Analysis

There are numerous haircuts to choose from both male & female styles.

After a decade of study, its been discovered that there are 4 categories that summarize every haircut possible.

Communication Goals

Be recognized. Photos are a great tool but not always a good indicator of the preferred style. Choose the desired length and choose the category that describes your look.

Switching Styles

Ditch the fear of trying something new. A change of style is usually necessary after graduation, career promotion, and many life changes. The decision to change your style can be expressed through any of the 4 styling categories with ease.

Haircut Satisfaction

You have style. Rather you claim it, is up to you. Increase your satisfaction with a new perspective on your haircut.

The All-Star Haircut

Casual, clean-cut, and classic. A haircut that shows off the head shape. Crisp without a sharp finish. Best suited for standard appearance.

The Effortless Haircut

Feather, wispy, flare layers. A haircut that adds height and/or width to the head shape. Feathered & stylish. Best suited for relaxed appearance.

The Craft Haircut

Original, tailored, and unique. A haircut based on hair density/thickness. Custom and complimentary style. Best suited for maverick appearance.

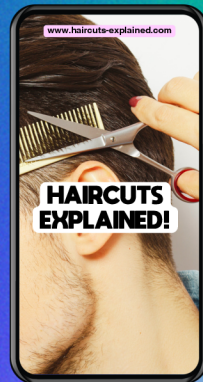

The Elemental Haircut

Attentive, exact, and sharp. A haircut that outlines an exact shape of the hair. Perfect sharp lines and finish. Best suited for executive appearance.
