AN UNCOMMON VILLAGE

How a small village in northern Italy became a village of vocations

Excerpted from the Congregatio pro Clericis website

The little village of Lu, northern Italy, with only a few thousand inhabitants, is in a rural area 90 kilometers east of Turin. It would still be unknown to this day if, in the year 1881, the family mothers of Lu had not made a decision that had “serious consequences.” The deepest desire of many of these mothers was for one of their sons to become a priest or for a daughter to place her life completely in God’s service. Under the direction of their parish priest, Msgr. Alessandro Canora, they gathered every Tuesday for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, asking the Lord for vocations. They received Holy Communion on the first Sunday of every month with the same intention. After Mass, all the mothers prayed a particular prayer together imploring for vocations to the priesthood. Through the trusting prayer of these mothers and the openness of the other parents, an atmosphere of deep joy and Christian piety developed in the families, making it much easier for the children to recognize their vocations.

Did the Lord not say, “Many are called, but few are chosen” (Mt 22:14)? In other words, many are called, but only a few respond to that call. No one expected that God would hear the prayers of these mothers in such an astounding way. From the tiny village of Lu came 323 vocations!: 152 priests (diocesan and religious), and 171 nuns belonging to 41 different congregations. As many as three or four vocations came from some of these families. The most famous example is the Rinaldi family from whom God called seven children. Two daughters became Salesian Sisters, both of whom were sent to Santo Domingo as courageous, pioneer missionaries. Five sons became priests, all joining the Salesians. The most well known of the Rinaldi brothers is Blessed Philip Rinaldi, who became the third successor of St. John Bosco as Superior General of the Salesians. Pope John Paul II beatified him on April 29, 1990. In fact, many of the vocations from this small town were for the Salesians. It is certainly not a coincidence, since St. John Bosco visited Lu four times during his life. The saint attended the first Mass of his spiritual son,

Fr. Philip Rinaldi in this village where he was born. Philip always fondly recalled the faith of the families of Lu: “A faith that made our fathers and mothers say, “The Lord gave us our children, and so if He calls them, we can’t say no.”

Fr. Luigi Borghina and Fr. Pietro Rota lived the spirituality of Don Bosco so faithfully that the former was called the “Brazilian Don Bosco” and the latter the “Don Bosco of Valtellina.” Pope John XXIII once said the following about another vocation from Lu, His Excellency, Evasio Colli, Archbishop of Parma: “He should have become pope, not me. He has everything it takes to become a great pope.”

Every ten years, the priests and sisters born in Lu come together from all over the world. Fr. Mario Meda, the long serving parish priest of Lu, explained that this reunion is a true celebration, a feast of thanksgiving to God who has done such great things for Lu.

The prayer that the mothers of Lu prayed for priestly vocations was short, simple, and deep: “O God, grant that one of my sons may become a priest! I myself want to live as a good Christian and want to guide my children always to do what is right, so that I may receive the grace, O God, to be allowed to give you a holy priest! Amen.”

From September 1-4, 1946, about half of the 323 priests and religious from Lu met in their village for a reunion which attracted worldwide attention.

DISCIPLE MAKER INDEX

Our Lady of Perpetual Help & St. John the Apostle are on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ in our parish communities. Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parishes can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith. As pastor, Father Preston's primary responsibility is to help you grow as disciples of Jesus and to equip you to go and make disciples of others.

Upon the request of Archbishop Vasquez, we along with all of the parishes in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, are participating in a parish survey conducted by Catholic Leadership Institute.

The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities, and that is where the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) comes in! The DMI is an important survey tool that invites you to reflect on your discipleship journey here at Our Lady of Perpetual Help and St. John the Apostle. The Disciple Maker Index is designed to:

- Invite parishioners to reflect on their journey of discipleship.
- Enable parish leadership to make data-driven decisions.
- Help parishioners grow in their faith.

The 10–15 minute survey can be accessed through an online link from SEPTEMBER 29TH–OCTOBER 25TH and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide your perspective on our parish's efforts to help you grow in relationship with Christ. All responses will be confidential, and our parishes will only receive information about the community as a whole. This survey is CHURCH SPECIFIC, so please complete the survey for the church that you are registered at! The link can be accessed through our website and via Flocknote. Paper surveys will also be available at the back of each church or in the Parish Office, for those who do not have the ability to complete the survey online.

Together, we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parishes can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith.

For questions or assistance, please contact the Parish Office or Rebecca at 832-212-4988.

Thank you for helping with this important project and please continue to pray for this intention and for the growth and protection of our parishes!
