MAN - MANA BHAVA MAD - BHAKTO,
MAD - YAJI MAM NAMASKURU,
MAM EVAISYASI SATYAM TE,
PRATIJANE PRIYO'SI ME.

Let your mind be engrossed in Me. Be devoted to Me. Offer worship to me. Be resigned to Me. Beloved as you are of me. I pledge in troth you shall come to Me alone.

Gita, Chapter 18, Verse 65.

The most confidential part of knowledge is that one should become a pure devotee of Lord and always think of Him and act for Him. One should always act in such a way that all daily activities are in connection with the Lord. We should arrange our life in such a way that throughout the twenty-four hours we cannot but think of Lord.

The main purpose of Panch-Dev pooja is to give Happiness, Peace and Contentment. Good thoughts emerge in the mind and divine energy is manifested in the body and the behavior experiences a sense of freedom by which the mind is easily directed toward Bra'hmaan. The different devtas are the manifestations of Brahma who is actually unthinkable, unmanifested, unlimited and without a form. Bra'hmaan can only be known by those who are free from the worldly ties and have no expectations from society. It is very difficult to achieve such a state and to visualize the image of any person or a devta without first seeing him is all the more arduous. The same applies to BRA'HMAAN also. Thus to experience the divine (NIRAAKAR BRA'HMAAN) in the deep recesses of our mind, we have to first worship the SAKAAR BRA'HMAAN. (The lord that has a name and form).

PREFACE

Sanatana Dharma (Hindu religion) can be described as an ocean. From time to time various organizations from all parts of the world form like rivers and meet in this ocean-like religion (Sanatana Dharma).

These are Vaishnava, Shaiva, Shakti, Saur and Ganapatya orders. Other smaller sections sprout from this huge diverse division continually even today.

It can be said that Sanatana Dharma (Hindu religion) is like an ancient Banyan Tree surrounded by its ever fresh green branches to whose roots we offer our daily prayers. A famous sloka from Manu-Smriti

Dharm~Eva Hato Hanti, Dharmo Rakshati Rakshitah!
Tasma~Dharmo Na Hantvyo, Ma No Dharmo Hato~Vadhit!!

"That which destroys Dharma is destroyed by Dharma. Dharma protects that which protects Dharma: Dharma protects if it is protected". Manusmriti 8/15.

The word "sandhya" (The transitional state of Sun into dawn, noon and dusk) is derived from -sandhi which means connection, the connection between Day and night. Day and night is the cause of the sun and the moon. Dawn is the time for prayers and meditation, at which time, the state of mind without much difficulty is calm, clear and resilient.

For quite some time, there have been repeated requests by members for some sort of simple daily prayer formality whereby everyone could benefit. Due to this urge, we have been given the opportunity to publish this book.

In the past years, the following books have been published by the Hindu Heritage Society of Australia:

- Hamare Rishi Muni (a brief introduction of our great Sages)
- Hindu Dharma Prashnottari (FAQs in Hinduism)
- Satya Narayan Vrat Katha (in poetic form)
- Saral Bhajanawali (simple Bhajans and Kirtans)

It has been possible to publish this much-needed publication with the financial support from Shri Rajesh Lala and Shaileshni Lala, together with his brothers and parents Shri Padam Lala and Gayatri Lala, the grandson of late Tota Ram Lala, who was well known for his religious dedication. With the Grace of the Almighty this year too, on the occasion of Guru Purnima 2011, we are pleased to offer this daily prayer book to you.

We fully believe that this publication will be of benefit to all.

The Hindi edition of this book was published in 2010 and it took a long time to translate it into English with few variations. We perhaps would have never been successful in this publication without the much-appreciated help from everyone and we acknowledge the people below for the exceptional help they have provided to us:

- Dr. Meenakshi Srinivasan, Principal of Sydney Sanskrit School, Sydney Australia.
- Mrs Priamvada Sreenath from, Sydney, Australia
- Shri Narayan Raman from San Francisco, California, USA.

SADA BHAVAANI DAAHINI SANMUKH RAHE GANESH.

PANCHDEV RAKSHAA KARE SHANKAR, VISHNU, DINESH.

Meaning:

May Goddess Bhawani (Durga) bless me, being on my right side; may Lord Ganesh bless me, being in front of me; may Lord Shankar, Vishnu and Dinesh (Surya) always protect me.

DHANANI BHUMAU PASH-VACH GOSHTHE,

NARI GRIHA-DWARI JANA SMSHANE

DEHS-CHITAAYAM PARLOK MARGE,

DHARMA-NUGO GACHATI JEEVA EK:

Meaning:

Dhan aur sampatti ka saath, keval makaan tak.

Priya naari aur bandhu chale keval shamshaan tak.

Sharir bhi saath deta, keval agni dah tak,

Dharm ek saath rahata, parlok marg par.

Meaning:

The above shloka and Hindi Doha indicate the reality of ones status in this world. We may have amassed a lot of wealth but nothing will accompany us beyond our property once we leave this world; we may have a very loving wife and family, but they cannot accompany us beyond the cemetery; we may have a bold and beautiful body but not beyond the cremation.

However, there is only one thing which accompanies us even beyond death – “Dharma Marg” love for God; performing virtuous deeds and abstinence from sinful acts.

SIGNIFICANCE OF DAILY PRAYER

Sandya snaanam japschaiva, devtaanam cha poojanam, Vaishvadeva tatha - tithyam shatt karmani dine dine.

Great importance is given to Daily Prayers to the Divine in the Hindu tradition. Besides waking up at dawn (Brahma Muhurtha), our ancient masters (holy Rishis) have instructed the Grihasthaa to perform 6 daily duties (nithya kriya). They are:

1. Sandhya Vandanam. Sandhya (The time change from night to day - evening or day to night - dawn) Vandanam (Prayers to the Deity)
2. Snaanam - Bathing in the early hours of dawn
3. Japa - Reciting the Divine Mantras (The ancient masters (Rishis) were the seers of the mantras)
4. Devata poojan - Prayers to The Deity
5. Bali Vaishvadeva. Bali (Holy Offering comprising of either water or fruit or cooked rice) Vaisvadev (Deities of The Elements)
6. Selfless Service to all.

Everyone is urged to do this daily routine

(NITYA KARMA).

It is said in the „Taitariya Sanhita“ that as soon as a person takes birth he or she is bounded by three kinds of debts;

1. Debt to the Deity ; Deva Rina;
2. Debt to Ancestors; Pitri Rina;
3. Debt to Rishis; Rishi Rina;
1. Debt to The Supreme - Due to consumption of natural resources.

2. Debt to Ancestors - Due to our ancestors as an expression of our gratitude for bestowing a rich heritage and for giving us the prototype of how to establish good moral values in once journey of life.

3. Debt to Rishis - Due to their burning quest for spiritual enlightenment, we enter humanity and have the good fortune of the guidance of the Holy Scriptures.

1. To reduce the effect of the Deva Rinam one has to perform Daily Prayers and be associated with -The Being or The Supreme entity.

2. For debt free from ancestors one needs to have a respected family, show respect to their mother, father and elders within the family.

3. Those that follow and promote their religion or duty are free from debts to rishis.

For those who have the 3 debts, they may not be able to get moksha (eternal salvation).

It is mentioned in the Manusmriti that whoever does swaadhyaya (study for self) and passes knowledge to others is equivalent to Brahma yagya, performing -tarpan (giving water to the ancestors) is Pitri yagya and doing havan (fire sacrifice) is Deva yagya. Panchbali is Bhuta yagya - welcoming of guests is Manushya yagya. This is what a householder's duty is supposed to be. By bathing, the outer body is cleaned and by doing japa (reciting of Gods names) one is mentally purified, thus we are ready to do our daily prayers. Before having our meals we should do panch bali yagya. If it is not possible then, one should take out 5 mouthfuls equivalent treat and serve and visitor god-like and only have meals after offering it to God.

In the Ishopanisad it mentions "ten tyacten bhunjitha". The universe is a gift of God therefore whatever we consume we must also be willing to sacrifice as well. Lord Shri Krishna mentions the same in the Gita.

During the morning a person's nature or temperament is usually honest, sincere and gentle. Thus during this time giving gifts, doing prayers and havan, leads one towards peace, which is everyone's desire.

In Hindu tradition there are many ways of Fasting. A true devotee of God makes connection with God by just meditation and reciting His names, whereas others offer their prayers through the assistance of a priest with all the requirements in a step by step method.

There are mainly 4 types of prayer worshipping :- attaining knowledge, devotion, duty and meditation. The knowledgeable attains by doing rituals, devotees by surrendering to god,

Meditation through coordination with god and duty to the will of god. The concept of 'panchdev' worshipping can be traced back to Vedic times and all the rest of the gods are bound by this panchdev including one's favourite god (known as -istdev).

NITYA KARMA:

It is best to leave the bed approximately an hour and a half before the Sun rise. This gives health and happiness.

Our scriptures prohibit sleeping at that time. Get up from the bed, rub both hands together and then touch both eyes with both palms. While opening your eyes see the palm first by chanting the mantra below.

KARAVALOKAN:

Karagre vaste Lakshmi, kar - madhye Sarasvati

Karmoole sthito Devah Prabhaate Kara-darshanam.

Meaning:

The palmar aspect of the human hand is considered to be the abode of the Three Deities Mother Lakshmi being in the fingers, Mother Saraswati being in the palm itself and ones Ishta devata (preferred Deity) being at the base of the palm.

Mother Lakshmi denotes Wealth and Prosperity – We do all our financial dealings with the help of the fingers;

Mother Saraswathi denotes Knowledge – When we study, we use the palm of the hand to hold the book/object; our preferred Ishta devta denotes Eternal beauty and strength; it is said in palmistry that the bangle-like rings on the hand decide the destiny of a person and also, when we do physical work the base of the palm is important for applying pressure.

In short, the palmar aspect of the human hand is vital in daily life and so the above shloka is said in gratitude to all the above mentioned deities in the early hours of the morning just as we awake from sleep.

BHOOMI VANDANA: (touching the mother Earth)

Samudra vasane Devi, parvata stana mandale

Vishnu-patni namastu-bhyam, paad-sparsha kshamasva me.

Meaning:

This shloka is dedicated to our planet. O Mother Earth, You have adorned the ocean as clothes and mountains and forests as your Body parts – You are the Goddess Bhoomadevi, who is the wife of Lord Vishnu, I bow to you. I humbly ask for your forgiveness for touching you with my feet (which is considered disrespectful: in Sanatana Dharma, Mother is given a very sacred position).

SELF MOTIVATION:

He jivhe rasa saaragye, sarvadaa madhura - priye.

Narayanakhya peeyusham, piva jivhe nirantaram.

Meaning:

O dear tongue, the nectar of Narayana mahamantra has ever lasting sweetness. Be wise to enjoy this permanent sweetness since you by nature love sweet. As explained earlier finish your daily routine and with the new or clean clothes sit in front of God and conduct “Shat Karm” as indicated below.

Please follow the instruction given in the Morning Prayer section (pg 11).

WHAT TO DO WHEN THERE IS A BIRTH OR DEATH IMPURITY (CONTAMINATION)?

According to Maharishi Paulastya, one should not stop performing daily prayer even at this time. However, instead of physical procedure one should do "Mansika prayer" - (a prayer done in one's mind). Recite all the mantras from beginning up to Gayatri Mantra japa. The prayers must be performed even while travelling, being incapacitated or when there is an emergency.

Panch maha yagya

ADHYAAPANAM BRAHMA YAGYAH, PITRI YAGYASTU TARPANAM

HOMO DAIVO BALIR BHUTO, NRI YAGYO-TITHI POOJANAM.

Meaning:

Bramha yagya or Rishi yagya - Accomplished through studying and teaching the Vedas. Everyone must study and follow the teaching of our sacred scriptures always. Having studied the scriptures, one should share the knowledge with others.

Pitri yagya- Offering of cooked rice shaped in to balls (pinda) and holy water to the family ancestors and the progenitors of mankind.

Deva yagya- In gratitude to the abundance provided by Mother Nature (including the Five Elements; Earth; Water; Fire; Wind and Space), it is our duty to offer ghee and uncooked grains into the sacrificial fire.

Manushya yagya- As instructed in our ancient Sacred scriptures, the following duties are to be performed as part of Manushya Yagya ; Feeding the poor and the hungry, taking care of guests, giving shelter and clothing to the homeless and the needy; comforting the distressed and offering service to the students.

Bhuta yagya- Food offering (Bali) should be placed at a convenient level intended for animals, birds, insects, travellers and beings of the invisible worlds. This is Bhuta Yagna.

How to do Pancha bali:

According to our Sanatana Dharma one should not be selfish to cook food for only them selves. It has been said with the intention of instilling the noble virtues of sharing and careing with others. Our Sages caution us that we will incur sin if we be selfish.

Chant the mantra and follow this simple process for Panch Bali.

1. For Cow – Go-bali: - edam gobhyo na mama.
2. For Dog – Shvaanabali: - edam shvanabhyo na mama.
3. For Crow - Kakabali: - edam vaaysebhyo na mama.
4. For an invisible power - Devadi bali:
- edam devadibyo na mama.
5. For an ant - Pipilikadibali: - edam pipilikadibhyo na mama.

ETERNAL PRAYER (MAANAS POOJA)

Maanasa puja simply means to worship The Deity in the pure meditative state of mind. It has been advised by our Saints that one should first offer Mansika puja to The Deity before offering the ritualistic puja. The Deity likes our affectionate inclination towards Him rather than materialistic offerings.

A famous quote:

BHAAV KA BHOOKHA HOON MAY, BHAAV HI EK SAAR HAI.

BHAAV SE MUJH KO BHAJE JO, BHAAV SE BEDA PAAR HAI.

There is no ideal gift for The Divine that one can offer. It is like plucking a flower from the garden and donating it to the same Gardener. This is why our scriptures have recommended for eternal prayer (Manas Puja). It is in this puja that devotee offers the best possible gift for his or her beloved Deity. The Divine throne made of precious gems, best robes, ornaments are offered. Fragrant air is offered as Dhoopa, fire is offered as deepa and nectar is offered as naivedya, along with almost unviable things offered by the resourcefulness of the meditative state of mind.

1. Om lam prithi-vyatmakam gandham parikalpyaami.

Meaning:

O Dear Supreme, you have bestowed upon Mother Earth the Spirit of Fragrance, which in turn I offer to you in the form of Gandha.

2. Om Ham akaasha-tmakam pushpama parikaam kalpayaami.

Meaning:

O Dear Supreme, you have bestowed upon flowers the Spirit of Space, which in turn I offer to you in the form of Garland of Flowers.

3. Om Yam vavyatmakam dhupam parikalpyaami

Meaning:

O Dear Supreme, you have bestowed upon Wind the Spirit of Vapour-which in turn I offer to you in the form of Dhoopa.

4. Om Rim vanhyaymakam deepam darshyaami.

Meaning:

By reciting these Beeja Mantras, one can complete Manasa Puja in this order. It will bring concentration and devotion. It is guaranteed that by offering even one flower to deity by eternal prayer, it is equivalent to thousands of those flowers offered to The Supreme Deity. It is strongly recommended to practice this, even though this process is not known by many of us.

AADITYAM GANANATHAM CHA DEVIM RUDRAM CHA KESHAVAM

PANCH DAIVTYA-MITYUKTAM, SARVA KARMASU PUJAYET.

The Sagun Saakaar (image worship) practicing Hindus are divided mainly into five great classes as below:

1. Vaishnavas - who worship the Lord as Vishnu;
2. Saivas - who worship the Lord as Shiva
3. Saktas- who adore Devi or the Mother aspect of the Lord.
- 4- Gaanpatyas - Who worship Lord Ganesh as their Ishta devata
- 5- Sauras - who worship Lord Surya as their preferred deity

Here is a brief picture of the sects.

(1) VAISHNAVAS SECT:

(A) Ramanandis:

The followers of Ramananda are the Ramanandis.

In the beginning of the fourteenth century, a very successful ascetic sect was founded by Ramananda: the Ramananda Sampradaya, popularly known as the Ramanandis.

Ramananda started his ascetic career as a member of this sect. He remained loyal to the philosophy of its founder Ramanuja, but he chose Rama and Sita as personal gods, (Ishta devta) and made devotion to them the central feature of the sect's religious practices.

(B) Vallabhacharins or Rudra Sampradayins (Rudra Sect)

Their founder was born in the forest Camparanya in 1479. He is regarded as an incarnation of Krishna. The Vallabhacharins worship Krishna as Baba-Gopala. The great authority of the sect is the Shrimad Bhagavata as explained in the Subodhini, the commentary thereon of Vallabhacharya.

(C) The Chaitanyas (Hare Krishna Movement)

This sect is prominent in Bengal and Orissa. The founder Chaitanya Mahaprabhu or Lord Gouranga, was born in 1485. The Chaitanyas worship Lord Krishna as the Supreme Being. All castes are admissible into the sect. The devotees constantly repeat the Name of Lord Krishna.

"Hare Krishna Hare Krishna Krishna Krishna Hare Hare, Hare Rama Hare Rama Rama Rama Hare Hare"

During the twentieth century, Swami Prabhupada, A.C. Bhaktivedanta became the founder Acharya of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness with branches all over the world.

(E) The Madhavas

The Madhavas are Vaishnavas. They are known as Brahma Sampradayins. The founder of the sect was Jagadguru Madhavacharya, otherwise called Ananda Tirtha and also called Purna-Prajna. He was born in 1200 ad. The Madhavas are divided into two classes called the Vyasakutas and the Dasakutas.

(F) Radha Vallabhis

Radha Vallabhis worship Krishna as Radha-Vallabha, the Lord or the Lover of Radha. Harivans was the founder of this sect. Seva Sakhi Vani gives a detailed description of the notion of this sect and more of their traditions and observances.

SIXTEEN FOLD WORSHIP (SHODASHOPACHARA)

Irrespective of Whom we worship, there are sixteen basic steps in Pooja. These steps are common for all Poojas. Therefore everyone should learn these steps. Though the God we worship is not visible to our physical eyes, we have to offer these sixteen sevas (services) to the Deity, which is the physical representative of the formless Almighty. This is a mental activity. Such physical actions which help us to successfully perform that mental activity constitute Pooja. Pooja is one of the most important means to achieve concentration of mind. Normally, we install the icon in a clean and aesthetically beautiful place. The surrounding gives us a sense of tranquillity and love. It is the tendency of the mind to acquire the qualities of the objects on which it concentrates. When the mind is concentrated on the Almighty, it imbibes the qualities of the Almighty and will eventually become the Almighty Itself. This is the ultimate aim of performing Pooja. But we are in an era where speed is everything. No one has time. It has therefore become difficult to understand the meaning of Mantras. Because it is difficult, we are not even trying to understand. This is so. In fact, the sixteen services are not much different from what we do every day in our daily life. To make it clear, let us understand the meaning and significance of the sixteen sevas

SWASTI VAACHAN

All the mantras of Swasti vachan pray for the well being of the world and exhort that peace should prevail upon the earth and the Universe. Oh God, let your eight elements viz. the heavens, space, earth, water medicines, flora, Vishvay Deva and Brahma spread peace in the Universe and ensure the well being of all.

STEP BY STEP PUJA OF PANCHDEV

Step 1: Dhyaana and Aavaahan:

Sit in front of the Image or Icon of your favorite deity (Ista devata), meditate on the form in front of you. For example, for Vishnu, one should visualise the conch, chakra and the mace in his hands and the lotus flower.

Aavaahan means 'to invite'. When we want an important person to visit our house, we extend a formal and respectful welcome. This is 'Avaahana'. While inviting, we remember his good qualities. This is called 'Dhyaana'.

Then, invoke the deity into the pictures or icon through prayers. After this is performed, what was previously an object becomes potent and holy. At this time, worshippers say "Almighty, I know you are everywhere. I know you are also in this Photograph/Icon." While doing the Pooja, one should envisage The Supreme himself in the Icon. I am seated in front of The Almighty who has manifested in the icon whom I humbly request to accept my pooja and prayers.

Ganesh Ji ka dhyan:

VIGNESHVARAYA VARDAYA SURAPRIYAYA,

Om Ganpatyadi Panch Devebhyo namah.
Dhyanarthe pushpanjalim samarpayami.

Step 2 - Aasana:

Offering a seat to the guest is termed “Aasana Samarpana”
The next step is offering seat to Almighty. This is done by the gesture of touching the icon, as if asking Him to sit. Mentally visualise each step – like The Supreme coming and being seated in front of us etc.

ANEKA RATNA SANYUKTAM NANAMANI GANANVITAM, IDAM HEMA-MAYAM DIVYAM-AASANAM PRATIGRIHYATAM.

Om Ganpatyadi Panch Devebhyo namah.
Aasanarthe pushpani samarpayami.

Step 3 - Paadhya:

In this step God's feet are washed with water.

Before entering the house, a person is required to wash his hands and feet - this is a custom followed in India. Washing feet of the Icon is done by pouring a few drops of water before the icon. The above said practice may not be relevant in cold regions. According to Yoga Shastra, the Nadis [nerves] terminate in the hands and the feet. It is therefore important to keep the hands and feet clean.

Step 6: Abhishekam or Snaanam:

Abhishekam literally means bathing (GOD).

Abhishekam literally means bathing (The Icon). For an Icon, a few drops of water can be poured on it and then dried with a clean cloth. For a photograph of the deity it is sufficient if you offer a few drops of water before the image. In addition to water, you can pour milk, rose water, water mixed with sandalwood paste etc.

We request the guest to bathe. In the case of an idol, we bathe it with different articles like milk, curd, ghee etc.. We can also bathe the idol with plain water.

Step 9: Aabharana:

Offering of ornaments made of Gold / Silver / Stones etc.

While doing this, imagine putting a necklace on God and then place a flower at his feet. Nowadays only women use flowers. In ancient times even men used to wear flowers just like women. Symbolically, flower signifies our heart.

Step 10: Pushpa mala: Offering a garland of flowers.

Flowers of various types are offered to the Lord along with the chanting of his holy names. In pooja, we offer different flowers while chanting the 108 or 1008 names of God.

Step 12: Dhoop:

Then offer an incense stick.

The incense (agharbatti) can be lit and circled in clockwise manner three times in front of icon.

Dhoopa means fragrant smoke. According to Ayurveda, inhaling of smoke by burning certain herbs is considered to be good for health.

Om Ganpatyadi Panch Devebhyo namah.

Dravya dakshinam samarpayami.

Step 15: Aarti: (all the Aaratis are on page 64-68)

Light camphor or a wick dipped in ghee and offer it to the deity at the same time as reciting prayers. This is Aarati.

Aarati should be offered to the deity three times in a clockwise direction. After prayer one must keep the palm close to the light of the Aarati, just enough to take the warmth in your palm and place your palm gently on your eyes. This should be done with great concentration (Shraddha) and devotion (Bhakti).

Step 16: Pradakshinaa and Pushpaanjali:

Offer flowers at the feet of the Deity, symbolically thus offering one's self to The Supreme.

After this, one has to offer his prostrations, prayers and songs to the deity.

To experience the original nature of the Almighty i.e., His Mantra form is the purpose of offering this service. By circumambulating (pradakshina), we imply that the Almighty is present in all directions. Pradakshina is one such daily practice.

The above mentioned sixteen services have a deep spiritual meaning, of which some are common things we do in our day to day life. “Mananaat traayate iti mantraha” – the repetitive chanting within one's mind purifies and protects him.

Pushpa; means flower.

(please follow all the mantras from page 69)

Mantrapushpa: As mentioned in Narayana Sukta, our heart is represented by a lotus bud. The act of offering the lotus-like heart (that has been sanctified by reciting the potent Mantras within one's mind) to The Supreme Being.

Oh Lord! Such is your greatness!

This prayer is said at the end of the day, before going to sleep, to ask The Supreme to forgive you for all the lapse in the action that you committed, either knowingly or unknowingly, through the day.

These are prayers for the prosperity and welfare of humanity. To achieve anything in life, one has to make an effort and await the results. Many unknown factors and laws influence the outcome of that effort. By praying to The Supreme, one acknowledges these laws as the natural order inseparable from The Supreme, and one acknowledges The Supreme as the giver of all results of actions.

An introduction of Hindu Heritage Society Inc.

Sydney, Australia.

www.hinduheritage.org.au

In its short history, The Hindu Heritage Society Inc. has come a long way in achieving some of its goals, as laid out in its Aims and Objectives. A legally constituted charitable organisation, with a comprehensive constitution to guide us, our executive members have, with the willing contribution from our members and volunteers achieved a lot of success.

1. Organizing three annual functions for the last few years:
 - A - Saraswati Poojaa, for our youth
 - B - Sanskriti Diwas to promote Hinduism
 - C - Devi Pooja for our spiritual devotees.
3. Divya Darshan – the Societies flagship magazine publication.
4. Our service to community through donations and personal involvement.
5. Associations with other organisations to promote culture and education.
6. Regular religious services by associated members.
7. Regular religious, language and music classes.

Some of the long time aims harbored by our hard working committee are:

1. To be able to serve all persons of Hindu faith, whatever sect or denomination they belong to:
2. Promote Hindu Heritage and Culture within Australia.
3. Establish a Hindu reference library in all capital cities of Australia.
4. Priority based religious service to our members.
5. Farfetched as it may seem, to bring Unity among all members of the Hindu faith.
6. To establish a Community Centre in Sydney (and later in other major cities) for religious / social functions.

We do not rest on our laurels, we still have a long way to go and with the grace of the almighty Lord, we will fulfill our dreams.
