हरि नाम की महिमा

बाल काण्ड से ली गयी रामायण की कुछ चुनी हुयी चौपायियाँ

EHl MAHA RAGHUPATI NAAMA UDAARAA, ATl PAAVANA PURAANA SRUTI SAARAA MANGALA BHAVANA AMANGALA HAAREE, UMAA SAHITA JEHI JAPATA PURAAREE .1.

Raamaayana contains the gracious name of the Lord of Raghus, which is exceedingly holy and the very cream of the Puranas and the Vedas. It is the abode of blessings and the remover of evils and is muttered by Lord Shiva,

*BANDAU NAAMA RAAMA RAGHUBARA KO, HETU KRISAANU BHAANU HIMAKARA KO.
BIDHI HARI HARAMAYA BEDA PRAANA SO, AGUNA ANUPAMA GUNA NIDHAANA SO.1.*

*MAHAMANTRA JOI JAPATA MAHESU, KAASHI MUKUTI HETU UPADESU.

*JAANA AADIKABI NAAMA PRATAAPU, BHAYAU SUDDHA KARI ULATAA JAAPU.

*HARAS E HETU HERI HARA HIKO, KIYA BHUSHANA TIYA BHUSHANA TIKO.
NAAMA PRABHAAU JAANA SIVA NIKO, KAALAKUTA PHALU DINHA AMI KO. 4.*

Seed-letters representing the fire-god, the sun-god and the moon-god (viz., Ra, and Ma respectively). It is the same as Brahm (the creative aspect of God), Vishnu (His preservative aspect) and Shiva (His disintegrating aspect) and the vital breath of the Vedas; It is attributeless, peerless and a mine of virtues. It is the great spell which Lord Mahesha mutters and which, when imparted by Him at Kashi (the modern Vaaranasi) leads to emancipation. Its glory is known to Lord Ganesha, who is worshipped before all others as a concession to the Name. The oldest poet (Valmiki) is acquainted with the glory of the Name, in as much as he attained to purity by repeating it (the name) in the reverse order. Hearing the verdict of Lord Shiva that the name is as good as a thousand other names of God, Goddess Bhavaani (Parvati) dined with Her consort after uttering It only once. Noticing such partiality of Her heart for the Name, Hara (Lord Shiva) made that lady, who was the ornament of Her sex, the ornament of His own person (i.e., made Her a part of His own being by assigning to Her the left half of His body). Shiva knows full well the power of the Name, due to which deadly poison served the purpose of nectar to Him. (1.4)

*AKHARA MADHURA MANOHARA DOU, BARANA BILOCHANA JANA JIYA JOU.

*KAHATA SUNATA SUMIRATA SUCHI NIKE, RAAMA LAKHANA SAMA PRIYA TULASI KE.

NARA NAARAAYANA SARISA SUBHRAATAA, JAGA PAALAKA BISESHI JANA TRAATAA.

BHAGATI SUTIYA KALA KARANA BIBHUSHANA, JAGA HITA HETU BIMALA BIDHU PUSHANA. 3.

*SWAADA TOSHA SAMA SUGATI SUDHAA KE, KAMATHA SESA SAMA DHARA BASUDHAA KE.
JANA MANA MANJU KANJA MADHUKARA SE, JIHA JASOMATI HARI HALADHARA SE.4.*

Both the letter-sounds are sweet and attractive; they are the two eyes, as it were, of the Alphabet and the very life of the devotee. Easy to remember and delightful to one and all, they bring gain here and provide sustenance hereafter. They are most delightful to utter, hear and remember and are dear as Rama and Lakshmana to Tulassidasa. When treated separately, the two letters lose their harmony (i.e., are differently pronounced, bear diverse meaning in the form of seed-letters and as such yield different results); whereas they are naturally allied even as Brahma (the Cosmic Spirit) and Jiva (the individual soul) Good brothers like the divine sages Nara and Narayana, they are sustainers of the universe and redeemers of the devotee in particular.

They are beautiful ornaments for the ears of the fair damsel in the form of Bhakti (Devotion) and stand as the spotless sun and moon for the good of the world. They are like the taste and the gratifying quality of nectar in the form of emancipation, and are supporters of the globe like the divine Tortoise and the serpent-god Shesha. Again, they are like bees for the beautiful lotus in the shape of the devotees mind and are the very like of Hari and Haladhara (Balarama, who wielded a plough as a weapon) for Yashoda (Their fostermother, the wife of Nanda) in the shape of the tongue. (1.4)

*SAMUJHATA SARISA NAAMA ARU NAAMI, PREETI PARASAPARA PRABHU ANUGAAMI.

*KO BARA CHOTA KAHATA APARAADHU, SUNI GUNA BHEDU SAMUJHIHAHI SAADHU.

*RUPA BISESHA NAAMA BINU JAANE , KARATALA GATA NA PARAHIÒ PAHICHANE.
SUMIRIA NAAMA RUPA BINU DEKHE, AAVATA HRIDAYA SANEHA BISESHE . 3.*

*NAMA RUPA GATI AKATHA KAHAANI, SAMUJHATA SUKHADA NA PARATI BAKHAANI.
AGUNA SAGUNA BICHA NAAMA SUSAAKHI, UBHAYA PRABODHAKA CHATURA DUBHAASHI 4.*

The name and the object named, though similar in significance, are allied as master and servant one to the other. (That is to say, even though there is complete identity between God and His name, the former closely follows the latter even as a servant follows his master. The Lord appears in person at the very mention of His Name). Name and form are the two attributes of God; both of them are ineffable and beginningless and can be rightly understood only by means of good intelligence.

It is presumptuous on one's part to declare as to which is superior or inferior. Hearing the distinctive merits of both, pious souls will judge for themselves. Forms are found to be subordinate to the name; without the name you cannot come to the knowledge of a form. Typical forms cannot be identified, even if they be in your hand, without knowing their name. And if the name is remembered even without seeing the form, the latter flashes on the mind with a special liking for it. The mystery of name and form is a tale which cannot be told; though delightful to comprehend, it cannot be described in words. Between the unqualified Absolute and qualified Divinity, the Name is a good intermediary; it is a clever interpreter revealing the truth of both. (1.4)

DOHA: RAMA NAMA MANIDEEPA DHARU JIHA DEHARI; DVAARA, TULASI BHITARA BAHERAHU, JAU CHAAHASI UJIYARA. 21.

Install the luminous gem in the shape of the divine name Rama on the threshold vowel is placed above that letter in the shape of a curved line, while the nasal consonant when preceded by any other letter, is changed into a dot (technically known by the name of Anusvara) when placed on the top of that letter, The curved line standing for the letter has been poetically compared in the above Doha to an umbrella and the dot substituted for likened to a crest-jewel, both of which enjoy an exalted position and are emblems of the royal state. In this way they are recognized as superior to all other letters of the Alphabet.

*NAAMA JEEHA JAPI JAGAH JOGI, BIRATI BIRANCHI PRAPANCHA BIYOGI.

*JAANAA CHAHAHI GURA GATI JEU, NAAMA JIHA JAPI JAANAHI TEU.

*JAPAHI NAMU JANA AARATA BAARI, MITAHI KUSANKATA HOHI SUKHARI

CHAHU CHATURA KAHU NAAMA ADHAARAA, GYAANI PRABHUHI BISESHI PIYAARAA CAHU JUGA CAHU SRUTI NAAMA PRABHAAU, KALI BISESHI NAHI AANA UPAAU. 4.

Yogis (mystics) who are full of dispassion and are wholly detached from Gods creation keep awake (in the daylight of wisdom) muttering the Name with their tongue and enjoy the felicity of Brahma (the Absolute), which is incomparable, unspeakable, unmixed with sorrow and devoid of name and form. Even those (seekers of Truth) who aspire to know the mysterious ways of Providence are able to comprehend them by muttering the Name. Strivers (hankering after worldly achievements) repeat the Name, absorbed in contemplation, and become accomplished, acquiring superhuman powers such as that of becoming infinitely small in size.

If devotees in distress mutter the Name, their worst calamities of the gravest type disappear and they become happy. In this world there are four kinds of devotees of shri Rama; all the four of them are virtuous, sinless and noble. All the four, clever as they are, rely upon the Name. Of these the enlightened devotee is specially dear to the Lord. The glory of the Name is supreme in all the four Yugas and all the four Vedas, particularly in the Kali age, in which there is no other means of salvation. (1.4)

Even those who are free from all desires and absorbed in the joy of devotion to Rama have thrown their heart as fish into the nectarine lake of supreme affection for the Name. (22)

There are two aspects of God. the one unqualified and the other qualified. Both these aspects are unspeakable, unfathomable, without beginning and without parallel. To my mind, greater than both is the Name, that has established Its rule over both by Its might.

Friends should not take this as a bold assertion on the part of this servant; I record my mind's own conviction, partiality and liking. The two aspects of Brahma (God) should be recognized as akin to fire: the one (viz., the Absolute) represents fire which is latent in wood; while the other (qualified Divinity) corresponds to that which is externally visible. Though both are inaccessible by themselves, they are easily attainable through the Name; therefore I have called the Name greater than Brahma and shri Rama both. Brahma (God) is one, all-pervading and imperishable; He is all truth, consciousness and a compact mass of joy. Even though such immutable Lord is present in every heart, all beings in this world are nonetheless miserable and unhappy. Through the practice of the Name preceded by Its true appraisal, however, the same Brahma reveals Itself even as the value of a jewel is revealed by its correct knowledge. (1.4)

As is well-known to all, shri Rama extended His protection to two devotees only, viz., Sugriva and Vibhishan His Name, on the other hand, has showered Its grace on numerous humble souls. This superb glory of the Name shines forth in the world as well as in the Vedas. Shri Rama collected an army of bears and monkeys and took no little pains over the construction of a bridge (to connect the mainland with the island of Lanka). Through the repetition of His Name, however, the ocean of mundane existence itself gets dried up: let the wise bear this in mind. Shri Rama killed in battle Ravan with all his family and returned to His own city with Sita. He was then crowned king in the capital of Ayodhya., while gods and sages sung His glories in choicest phrases. His servants are, however, able to conquer the formidable army of error by fondly remembering His Name and, absorbed in devotion, move about in joy which is peculiarly their own; by the grace of the Name they know not sorrow even in dream. (1.4)

The Name is thus greater than Brahma and shri Rama both and confers blessings even on the bestowers of boons. Knowing this in His heart, the great Lord Shiva chose this word (Rama) for Himself out of shri Ramas story comprising 100 crore verses. (25)

By the grace of the Name alone Lord Shambhu (Shiva) is immortal and, though endowed with inauspicious paraphernalia (such as a wreath of skulls), is yet a storehouse of blessings. Again, it is by the grace of the Name alone that Siddhas (adepts), sages and Yogs like shuka, Sanaka and others enjoy divine raptures, Narada realized the glory of the Name; that is why, while shri Hari is beloved of the world (and Hara is dear to shri Hari), he (Narada) is dear to Hari and Hara (Vishnu and shiva) both.

It was because of his repeating the Name that the Lord showered His grace on Prahlada, who thereby became the crest-jewel of devotees. Dhruva repeated the name of shri Hari with a feeling of indignation (at the harsh treatment received from his step-mother) and thereby attained a fixed and incomparable station in the heavens. It is by remembering the holy Name that Hanum.n (son of the wind-god) holds shri Rama under His thumb. The vile Ajamila and even the celebrated elephant and the harlot of the legend were liberated by the power of shri Haris name. I have no words to depict the glory of the Name: not even Rama can adequately glorify it. (1.4)

The name of Rama is a wish-yielding tree, the very home of beatitude in this age of Kali, by remembering which Tulasidasa (the poet himself) was transformed from an intoxicating drug like the hemp-plant into the holy basil. (26)

To use another metaphor) the Name of Rama is, as it were, the Lord manifested as a man-lion and the age of Kali; the demon Hiranyakashipu. Crushing this enemy of gods, the Name will protect the devotees repeating It, even as the Man-lion protected Prahlada. (27)

The Name repeated either with good or evil intentions, in an angry mood or even while yawning, diffuses joy in all the ten directions. Remembering that Name and bowing my head to the Lord of Raghus, I proceed to recount the virtues of shri Rama. He whose grace is never tired of showing its good-will to others will mend my errors in everyway. Rama a noble Lord, and a poor servant like myself ! Yet, true to His own disposition, that storehouse of compassion has fostered me.

In the world as well as in the Vedas we observe the following characteristic in a good master, viz., that he comes to recognize one's devotion to him as soon as he hears one's prayer. Rich or poor, rustic or urban, learned or unlettered, of good repute or bad, a good poet or a bad one, all men and women extol the king according to his or her light. And the pious, sensible, amiable and supremely compassionate ruler, who takes his descent from a ray of God, greets all with sweet words hearing their compliments and appraising their composition, devotion, supplication and conduct. Such is the way of earthly monarchs, to say nothing of the Lord of Kosala (shri Rama), who is the crest-jewel

The benevolent Rama will nonetheless respect the devotion and pleasure of this wicked servant.shri Rama, who made barks out of rocks and wise counsellors out of monkeys and bears. Everybody calls me a servant of the Lord and I myself claim to be one; and shri Rama puts up with the scoffing remark that a master like Sitas Lord has a servant like Tulasidasa. (28 A-B)

My presumption and error are indeed very great and, hearing the tale of my sins, even hell has turned up its nose at them. I shudder to think of it due to my assumed fears; while shri Rama took no notice of them even in a dream. The Lord, on the other hand, applauded my devotion and spirit on hearing of, perceiving and scanning them with the mind's eye. If there is anything good in one's heart, it is marred by the telling; for shri Rama is pleased to note what is there in the devotee's mind. The Lord never cherishes in His mind the lapse, if any, on part of a devotee; while He remembers the latter's spirit a hundred times. For instance, the very crime of which He had killed Vali (the monkeyking of Kiskindha) even as a huntsman was repeated in the misdemeanour perpetrated.

Vishnu sahasranama

The Vishnu Sahasranāma (literally: "Vishnu of the thousand names") is a list of 1,000 names for Vishnu, one of the main forms of God in Hinduism and the only Ultimate Reality for Vaishnavites (followers of Vishnu). More particularly, the Vishnu sahasranāma is one of the most sacred and chanted stotras in Hinduism. It is recited, often with a preface, as a prayer by many Vaishnavites.

As described in the 149th chapter of Anushāsana-parva in the epic Mahabharata, the names were handed down to Yudhishthira by grand sire Bheeshma, who was on his death bed at the battle of Kurukshetra. Yudhishthira asks Bhishma the following questions:

1. In this universe who is the one Lord of all? (i.e., at whose command all beings function or who is God of all?)
2. What is that one supreme status which one should seek to attain?
3. Who is the one Divinity by praising and by worshiping whom a man attains God?
4. Which according to you is that highest form of Dharma (capable of bestowing salvation and prosperity on man)?
5. What is that by uttering or reciting which any living being can attain freedom from cycle of births and deaths?

Bhishma answers by stating that mankind will be free from all sorrows by chanting the Vishnu Sahasranāma which are the thousand names of the one All-Pervading Supreme Being who is master of all the worlds, supreme over the Devas and who is Brahman. The reference from which this citation is taken and adapted is shown below.

There are Sahasranāma for major forms of God (Vishnu, Shiva, Shakti, and others), but Vishnu Sahasranāma is most popular among common people, especially householders. The others are recited mostly in temples or by renunciants who pray to Vishnu as the Supreme God with personal attributes. However, the term "sahasranāma", by itself, generally refers to Vishnu sahasranāma. Vishnu sahasranāma has been the subject of numerous commentaries. The most popular ones are those of Adi Shankaracharya who wrote a definitive commentary on the Sahasranāma in the 8th century and Parasara Bhattar, a follower of Ramanuja.

Benefits of chanting Vishnu Sahastranama

The following lines are from the Mahabharata and are quoted portions from the text. Believers believe that regular chanting of the hymn can accrue benefits. On avoiding evil, succeeding in battle and gaining affluence, pleasure, happiness, and offspring:

Bhisma said, "Even thus have I recited to thee, without any exception, the thousand excellent names of the high-souled Kesava whose glory should always be sung. That man who hears the names every day or who recites them every day, never meets with any evil either here or hereafter. If a Brahmana does this he succeeds in mastering the Vedanta; if a Kshatriya does it, he becomes always successful in battle. A Vaisya, by doing it, becomes possessed of affluence, while a Sudra earns great happiness."

If one becomes desirous of earning the merit of righteousness, one succeeds in earning it (by hearing or reciting these names). If it is wealth that one desires, one succeeds in earning wealth (by acting in this way). So also the man who wishes for enjoyment of the senses succeeds in enjoying all kinds of pleasures, and the man desirous of offspring acquires offspring (by pursuing this course of conduct)."

On acquiring fame, prosperity, prowess, energy, strength, beauty, removing fear, avoiding calamity, and being cured of disease:

"That man who with devotion and perseverance and heart wholly turned towards him, recites these thousand names of Vasudeva every day, after having purified himself, succeeds in acquiring great fame, a position of eminence among his kinsmen, enduring prosperity, and lastly, that which is of the highest benefit to him (viz., emancipation itself). Such a man never meets with fear at any time, and acquires great prowess and energy. Disease never afflicts him; splendour of complexion, strength, beauty, and accomplishments become his. The sick become hale, the afflicted become freed from their afflictions; the affrighted become freed from fear, and he that is plunged in calamity becomes freed from calamity."

The man who hymns the praises of that foremost of Beings by reciting His thousand names with devotion succeeds in quickly crossing all difficulties. That mortal who takes refuge in Vasudeva and who becomes devoted to Him, becomes freed of all sins and attains to eternal Brahman. They who are devoted to Vasudeva have never to encounter any evil. They become freed from the fear of birth, death, decrepitude, and disease."

On acquiring righteousness and intelligence, and avoiding the sins of evil:

"That man who with devotion and faith recites this hymn (consisting of the thousand names of Vasudeva) succeeds in acquiring felicity of soul, forgiveness of disposition, Prosperity, intelligence, memory, and fame. Neither wrath, nor jealousy, nor cupidity, nor evil understanding ever appears in those men of righteousness who are devoted to that foremost of beings. The firmament with the sun, moon and stars, the welkin, the points of the compass, the earth and the ocean, are all held and supported by the prowess of the high-souled Vasudeva. The whole mobile and immobile universe with the deities, Asuras, and Gandharvas, Yakshas, Urugas and Rakshasas, is under the sway of Krishna."

On the origins of the soul, the source of righteous behaviour, and the basis of all knowledge and existence:

"The senses, mind, understanding, life, energy, strength and memory, it has been said, have Vasudeva for their soul. Indeed, this body that is called Kshetra, and the intelligent soul within, that is called the knower of Kshetra, also have Vasudeva for their soul. Conduct (consisting of practices) is said to be the foremost of all topics treated of in the scriptures. Righteousness has conduct for its basis. The unfading Vasudeva is said to be the Lord of righteousness. The Rishis, the Pitris, the deities, the great (primal) elements, the metals, indeed, the entire mobile and immobile universe, has sprung from Narayana. Yoga, the Sankhya Philosophy, knowledge, all mechanical arts, the Vedas, the diverse scriptures, and all learning, have sprung from Janardana. Vishnu is the one great element or substance which has spread itself out into multifarious forms. Covering the three worlds, He the soul of all things, enjoys them all."

His glory knows no diminution, and He it is that is the Enjoyer of the universe (as its Supreme Lord). This hymn in praise of the illustrious Vishnu composed by Vyasa, should be recited by that person who wishes to acquire happiness and that which is the highest benefit (viz., emancipation). Those persons that worship and adore the Lord of the universe, that deity who is inborn and possessed of blazing effulgence, who is the origin or cause of the universe, who knows on deterioration, and who is endued with eyes that are as large and beautiful as the petals of the lotus, have never to meet with any discomfiture." Bhisma's quote cited from Ganguli translation of Vishnu Sahasranama (public domain)

Short introduction of Hindu Heritage Society

History

Hindu Heritage Society was founded in 1998 to promote Hinduism in Australia, The society had originally known as "KALAA MANDIR" and had a name changed later to reflect its aims and objectives.

The society has very warm support from the community and has a good number of dedicated members. We do not have membership barriers based on cast, creed, country of origin or individual beliefs. One has to be a member of one of the many arms of the Hindu Religion to join the HHS and benefit from its activities.

HHS organizes various cultural and educational programs for both children and adults. In past it has organised religious and cultural activities for the local community which includes Kumbh Milan in 1999, Sarva Dharma Prarthna Samelan (all religion seminar where Hindus, Jainis, Buddhists, and Shikha have participated and was one of the unique in Australia. It has also organised Shri Krishna Leela in 2000. HHS has also rendered help to the earthquake victims in Gujrat and joined with other religious organisations for the inter faith prayer offered to the victims of the bombing incident in America.

HHS actively provides Religious services through Pt Narayan Bhatt and through other dedicated religious, social people. HHS publishes Divya Darshan a quarterly magazine, which contains highly authentic information and covers Religious, Cultural, Educational and moral teachings.

Heritage means preserving one's religion, arts, culture and inherited properties (values). Hindus have a very rich historic heritage in countries they have settled such as America, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, Fiji, many African Nations, England, Malaysia, and Singapore etc. This is evident by the retention of that rich heritage by the people from Hindu origin of South Asian countries (SAARC) which include India, Nepal, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Pakistan, Sri Lanka and Maldives.

The HHS is doing its share to promote that Hindu culture for the people of Hindu origin in Australia. Come and share your views here. Any constructive criticism of our activities will be welcome. However, the committee at all times will be mindful of the feelings of other sects within the wider realms of Hinduism.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF HHS

- Promote the cultural, social and educational welfare of mankind.
- Impart education to both, children and adults, invite educated guests, Swami's and Priests to cultural functions where they will perform presentations and rituals as appropriate.

- Establish Hindu Heritage Centres, Institutions and Reference Libraries, where these activities can be carried out regularly.
- Establish branches in state and interstate with similar aims and objectives and as the management committee may consider appropriate.
- Generate funds for use of the Society through appropriate activities and to help the needy and destitute in case of tragedy, disasters and emergencies.
- Establish web site of HHS and publish yearly, quarterly or monthly publications to promote the culture.

Regular activities of Hindu Heritage Society and Some of our achievements

In its short history, The Hindu Heritage Society Inc. has come a long way in achieving some of its goals, as laid out in its Aims and Objectives. A legally constituted charitable organization, with a comprehensive constitution to guide us, our executive members have, with the willing contribution from our members and volunteers achieved a lot of success.

1. Organizing three annual functions for the last three years; Saraswati Poojan, Guru Purnima (Sanskrit Diwas celebration) and Devi Jagran.
2. Divya Darshan – the Societies flagship magazine publication.
3. FAQ in Hinduism booklet publication.
4. Our service to community through donations and personal involvement.
5. Association with other organizations to promote culture and Education.
6. Regular religious services by associated members.
7. Regular religious, language and music classes.
8. Daily devotional Radio Programme in Sydney, including on the internet.

We do not live on our laurels, we still have a long way to go and with the grace of the almighty Lord, we will fulfil our dreams.

Some of the long time aims (dreams) harbored by our hard working committee are to one day achieve these;

- To be able to serve all persons of Hindu faith, whatever sect or denomination they belong to.
- Promote Hindu Heritage and Culture within Australia.

- Establish a Hindu reference library in all capital cities of Australia. Priority based religious service to our members.
- Far fetched as it may seem, to bring Unity among all members of the Hindu faith.
- To establish a Community Centre in Sydney (and later in other major cities) for religious / social functions.

How can you be part of us

Hindu Heritage Society Inc. is a charitable organization, run by volunteers. Our aim is to serve the needy in the name of Hinduism. Need has no barriers in so far as religion is concerned. We contributed to the natural disaster funds (such as Tsunami appeal, Hurricane Katrina appeal etc) in what ever small way we could. Funds permitting, we can do so much more. We do not collect funds to make a profit – whatever income is generated through our various activities, are given in donations or are used to cover expenses for our activities.

If anyone wishes to become a member of the HHS, application forms are available on our Web site: www.hinduheritage.org.au or you can contact any of our members to obtain the forms.

Lord Vishnu

Yadaa Yadaa hi Dharmasya Glanirbhavati Bharata Abhyuttanam Adharmasya Tadaatmaanam Srujamyaham

*Paritranaya Sadhunaam Vinaashaya ch Dushkritaam
Dharmasansthapanarthaya Sambhavami Yuge Yuge*

Meening: Whenever Dharma or the situation of law and order is endangered on this world, I incarnate onto this world to re establish Dharma, law and order and to protect the Sadhus or Saints and to destroy the evil elements of the society.

Throughout the ages, Lord Vishnu has incarnated in various life forms through different yugas (ages or eons) in situations where Dharma was in danger, because of certain dushta (evil) elements in the world. In mythology, there are ten documented instances of incarnation of Lord Vishnu. These incarnations are termed as the Avatars of Lord Vishnu.

Vishnu, preserver of human life is one of the Trimurti. He is generous and known as being ‘Sattvaguna’ (kind and merciful). Vishnu is the only God of the Trimurti who is reborn whenever there is a crisis on earth. If ‘Dharma’ (righteousness) is disturbed, Vishnu descends to earth in an avatar (a various forms) to fight the forces of evil.

The Puranas list the Dasavatars’ (ten avatars) Vishnu took on to sustain the cosmos. Seen in order, they represent the evolution of mankind from the fish stage to ‘Purusha’ (man).

These avatars were Matsya (fish), Kurma (tortoise), Varaha (boar), Nara-simha (man-lion), Vamana (dwarf), Parashurama (a powerful warrior), Rama, Krishna, Buddha and Kalki (white horse).

A romantic aspect of the myths is that whenever Vishnu descends to earth he marries Lakshmi (his Goddess wife). They are destined to marry on earth as in heaven. When Vishnu is Rama, Lakshmi is born as Sita. As Krishna he marries her as Rukmani.
