As a Quantum Integration Specialist, I guide individuals through the subtle layers of their being, helping them align with their highest potential. I work with the energetic, emotional, and mental fields to facilitate deep coherence and transformation. My role is to assist in the integration of fragmented aspects of self into a unified, empowered whole.

Sioux Greaux, Founder of Sole Renew, is a Quantum Integration Specialist devoted to supporting whole-person wellness in a deeply compassionate and grounded way. Her work is rooted in both personal experience and professional study. After navigating her own health challenges that did not respond to conventional approaches, Sioux was guided toward holistic energy practices. Through this journey, she supported her body in restoring balance and discovered pathways to healing that felt both natural and profound.

With certifications in Belief Work, Subconscious & Quantum-Based Transformation, Foot Zone Therapy, Sound Therapy, and as a Quantum Reiki Master, Sioux offers an integrative approach that gently meets you where you are. Each session is designed to support the vitality of your heart, mind, body, and soul, while honoring your unique experience and pace.

Sole Renew is a welcoming space for those seeking a deeper connection to their well-being. Here, the focus is on understanding the root of imbalance and supporting you in creating meaningful, lasting shifts. Whether you are navigating something new or something long-held, you are supported in returning to a sense of balance, clarity, and ease.

Sioux has had the privilege of working with hundreds of clients, supporting them through experiences related to stress, anxiety, digestive concerns, grief, ancestral patterns, PTSD, emotional imbalance, physical discomfort, and more. Her approach is gentle, intuitive, and centered on creating a space where you feel seen, heard, and supported.

Sole Renew was created to meet a growing need for care that honors the whole person. Offerings are designed as integrative wellness experiences that invite individuals to reconnect with their inner wisdom, release emotional and energetic blocks, and return to their natural state of harmony.

Those local to Atlanta, Georgia are warmly welcomed for in-person sessions at our East Point, GA location. For those outside of the area, virtual sessions offer a meaningful and connected experience from wherever you are in the world. Through these offerings, we have had the honor of supporting clients across the United States and internationally, including Canada, Greece, Malta, South Africa, Israel, Serbia, Sri Lanka, Nigeria, and North Macedonia. No matter the distance, we intentionally create space for presence, connection, and transformation.
