ATHENA

One Love Live

With close to 20 years of experience in the music industry, Athena has thrived in diverse roles encompassing management, touring, bookings, artist development, project management, radio/press marketing, modeling, songwriting, event organizing and production. Presently, she directs projects and artist management within the Hip-hop and Latin music industry, undertakes nationwide talent bookings, and serves as the founder and partner of numerous sports/music events and festivals. Athena is actively involved in a multitude of projects, including music videos and single releases, and curates a spectrum of events like concerts, art shows, festivals, and local community gatherings. Her unwavering commitment extends to fostering music and arts events that empower emerging artists, offering them a platform to pursue their artistic aspirations and showcase their talents.

ONELOVELIVE

OneLoveLive Media Co. is an entertainment, music and arts company that produces, organizes, and manages music performance showcases, creating opportunities through in-person, live, and/or hybrid ticketing events. OneLoveLive has been able to connect music and arts to the community through live concerts, festivals, trade shows, sporting events, community outreaches, and has showcased a variety of projects from artists in music, arts, literature, performances, and more.
