▼ Intuitive Breakthroughs & Powerful Manifestation Tools ▲

So every week I have some long meetings with my business partner and we record them, so that way if we say something brilliant we can remember what we said, but we also sometimes record video podcasts that way or bloopers for our YouTube. Enjoy them. Yes yes yes I did 3 sessions and well we've kind of done some tantric stuff but it's really just an intuitive download thing and it's been really amazing you know I started with the 3 sessions and we broke down we were like we went back and we went forward and we went Okay life and like all sorts of things and he's just given me a lot of extra tools. He helped me meet some new guides that I am still a little nervous to approach. So I need to work through that which is incredibly interesting but it happened because they scared me when I was a kid and Yeah and I loved the sessions with him so much the 3 sessions that I went ahead and did 3 more because there's still more things to be done And I had another session on New Year's Day and that was fantastic

Even the third session he gave me I'm kind of better tools for manifesting which has been fantastic And then this last time he gave me those clearing steps on session or the clearing statements and that new way of going about it which is just mind-blowing But it's all about like using the collective consciousness. So many millions of people in the world have used that phrase that there's power in the phrase because of the intentions that it was left behind. So when you channel that, and you go in, fantastic stuff. I love it, I love this guy, and he's funny and he's cute and it's, you know, it's a good time. So, to all of you out there who are looking for a great testimonial for Jothi Ramesh. I can't speak more highly of him. Your sessions will be unique to you, but they will be beneficial, and you'll definitely learn a lot about yourself.

▼ Exceptional Intuitive Guidance and Transformational Insights ▲

I had the incredible opportunity to work with Jothi Ramesh, and my experience has been phenomenal.

We began with three sessions, during which Jothi skillfully guided me through a comprehensive analysis of my life, exploring both past and future aspects. I found these sessions transformative, as Jothi provided invaluable tools that have greatly enhanced my personal growth.

Enthralled by the initial sessions, I eagerly booked three more sessions with Jothi. Each encounter proved to be an enlightening experience. In our third session, Jothi equipped me with even more powerful tools for manifestation, which have since profoundly impacted my ability to create the life I desire. Jothi introduced me to clearing statements, a revolutionary approach harnessing collective consciousness. The sheer magnitude of millions of people who have used these statements throughout history adds incredible power to their intention.

Channeling this energy has been mind-blowing, and I can't help but be amazed by Josie's ability to guide me through this process.

His delightful sense of humor and infectious charm set Jothi Ramesh apart. Every session with him was not only enlightening but also an enjoyable experience. His genuine dedication to his clients and evident expertise make him an excellent guide.

To anyone seeking a remarkable intuitive experience, I wholeheartedly recommend Jothi Ramesh. Although each session is tailored to your unique needs, you can rest assured that they will be profoundly beneficial, providing you with invaluable insights into yourself and your journey. Take advantage of this opportunity to work with a gifted and insightful practitioner like Jothi Ramesh.

In conclusion, my fifteen sessions (so far) with Jothi Ramesh have been nothing short of life-changing. I can't speak highly enough of his expertise and the transformational impact he has had on my personal growth.

Note: This review is based on my personal experiences and opinions. Results may vary for individuals.

▼ Bridging Logic and Intuition—A Transformational Journey ▲

Hey everybody, my name is Adam Moskowitz. I have been working with Jothi Ramesh for about the last 6 weeks or so, and I have to say, I have been on a journey of self-discovery. For about the last decade, I read on average six self-help books a year. I do transformational studies, group thinking, and all types of interesting stuff. I would be considered a very left-brain individual, being that I tend to process things very logically. So I get some of it, I don't get some of it, I keep trying, but Jothi, on the other hand, his methods have reached me in ways that I haven't been reached before, and I'm really enjoying going places that I haven't discovered yet. He's taking me to a world of Eastern philosophy that I've touched on in my day. I've got, I mean, my major in college was computer science, so you can see where my left brain was. My minor though was compared to religion so I've always been thinking and searching and he's letting me to actually and he's leading me to actually combine the thoughts and combine the two. So I highly recommend his services. He is an amazing individual. He's been reaching me in ways that I have never been reached before, and I want to thank him for everything that he has done or is doing.

▼ Clearing Blocks, Gaining Clarity and Abundance ▲

Greetings, Jamie Aronson here, filmmaker and psychic. Ramesh, thank you. It is extremely rare for me to feel understood by coaches. With Ramesh, I felt heard and guided in a clear and precise way. We traveled to the past, to the present, to the future, to clear blocks around finances, which was one of the reasons why I chose to be coached by Ramesh and I am so pleased to report that after our third session, I then received money and there is this whole new clarity, I feel around Money and also around my psychic abilities. There were some blocks there that we removed, so thank you for supporting me in a gentle way to address my fears and become conscious of certain fears. Also, to balance out my masculine and feminine energy. I am honored to have met you and look forward to continuing our work in the future. Cheers, blessings, peace.

▼ Transforming Business & Life with Ramesh ▲

Hi, this testimonial is for Jothi Ramesh. Ramesh, I just wanted to say thank you for the work that we've done together. He and I have been working together for gosh, already it seems like 2 months. The time has just flown by. When I started working with Ramesh, I really wanted some tools to help me move forward as a business owner, also to help me personally work with a lot of the stress and emotion that I have been a mom and a full-time business owner, and all of the hats that I wear, and so I've really found the coaching sessions just so helpful. It's not just the interaction that we have once a week. It's also the tools that he's giving me to use in between our meetings that have been so helpful. If you are looking for someone to help you in life or business. I highly recommend Ramesh. He definitely shows that he has the experience and also the caring nature to help you work towards your goals.

▼ Thriving in Business with Mindful Coaching ▲

Hi Jothi, I just wanted to thank you for your services and always being available. Jothi, I've been working with him for like I think it's about two years now off and on and you know for me it's been a great experience. Grown to care for Jothi Ramesh and you know and also see that he's a pretty transparent and a genuine figure himself that allows him and his work to really emanate and see it through for me. You know it's all about perspective, and Ramesh has given me and challenged me on different insights and different perspectives on ways to internalize things from the outside world and how to operate myself and my daily life. Through my inner world and not ingested from my outside, if that makes sense. All in all. I would highly recommend that you work with Ramesh If you're looking to create stronger connections whether it would be yourself with money with relationships and just what I really think I see Ramesh helping me dial in is my energy and just focusing and pinpointing my energy and which direction it's going how I'm receiving it how I'm giving it out and how I'm internalizing it I think I find the most value in Ramesh in this space I hope you do too.

Hi, I just wanted to make a testimonial for Jothi Ramesh. I've been a coaching client of his now. So I did the first three, and now I'm on the second three. I love so far what I've been experiencing with his coaching. He comes and has a unique approach, which is a blend of Neuro Linguistics, energy, and mindfulness, and it's helped my business. I am a Mortgage Broker. Especially in this time when we are in an inversion and when most people are in survival mode, I am actually thriving. So this is great. Thank you, Jothi Ramesh, for your coaching.

Hello, my name is Michelle Tarver, and I would really like to give a testimonial for Jothi Ramesh, an intuitive life coach. When I first came across him, I thought what he was offering sounded interesting, but to be honest, I had no idea what an intuitive life coach was, but I had a strong urge to give it a try. ▼ From Skeptic to Believer – Through Jothi Ramesh's Coaching ▲

I came across Jothi Ramesh sir via Google.

Being a doctor, I never believed in stuff which don't have a scientific reason. Having taken a few sessions with Sir, my entire ideology about life has changed. People acknowledge my change so much that they are seeing a different version of me in my personal life.

His intuitive readings are very apt. His energy level is so high that we actually try to automatically balance our energy levels.

His meditation techniques and his method of approaching daily phenomena in our lives are totally different. He has a deep knowledge of what he teaches us.

He is a very genuine, transparent, and amicable person.

His sessions have helped me both in my professional and personal life. I am grateful to the universe for having introduced Jothi sir to me at the right time. I strongly recommend that people going through this review interact with Sir at least once to feel the vibes.

▼ Manifesting Clients & Wealth with Ease ▲

Hello everyone, this is Ashish Bhoskar, and I have been working with Jothi Ramesh Ji under his mentorship. So by profession, I'm a software engineer, and I'm also a wealth coach, and I have been under the mentorship of Jothi Ramesh Ji for the last few months. He is teaching me the techniques of attracting clients, getting new business, getting money, and how to attract more and more funds. So it has been a wonderful journey using the techniques I have been applying for last I'll say I've been using his techniques very strictly in the previous 4 to 5 weeks and I have seen wonderful results when I'm using his techniques to you know attract clients or saying that Just to what do you say, I'll say I'll just repeat the word itself when we say that 'This is a dream, I'm just a watcher!' So, what we are doing is we are getting out of the current situation, and we have to do whatever exists, and then attract whatever you want. So even if we just say that whatever is happening currently is just a dream and I am coming out of that, it's also a wonderful technique to attract more and more positive things that you want and ignore what is happening currently. Likewise, there are multiple things that I have learned from Jothi Ramesh ji. About attracting clients from various locations in the geography and attracting positive energies for getting into a positive state of mind, I want to thank you so much, Jothi Ramesh Ji, for all your help and support so far. Thank you so much, Jothi Ramesh Ji. It has been wonderful working with you. Thanks.

▼ Unlocking Miracles Through Intuitive Power ▲

Hello everyone, do you believe in intuitive powers or do you believe in miracles? I do because I have experienced that myself with my intuitive coach, Jothi Ramesh. Jothi Ramesh sir has a deep knowledge of his concept, and he can clearly read your mind when you are having confusion. He has guided me in many things and given me clarity in life. He told me how I have to balance my feminine and masculine energy so that I can channel my energies more productively. He has also guided me on how to do some statements for 48 days and how I am going to be more powerful and actionable and He has guided many techniques like if you don't want to see some result you're not happy with what you have to see what statement you have to use so that you can change your conscious mind and change your reality. During one session when I was with him, I was having severe back pain, a lot of tiredness, and a lot of confusion in my mind. Within a few seconds, while talking to him, I noticed that my pain had reduced. I was not feeling that tired, and I could see a smiling face myself. How this happened within a few seconds, that's the power of his intuitive magic. I highly recommend Jothi Ramesh Sir to everyone who wants to increase their intuitive powers, anybody who has some confusion in life, or anybody who wants to seek the right path, or how to go about it. Please contact Jothi Ramesh Sir. You will always be grateful to him because he will guide you to the right.

▼ From Darkness to IIT: A Life Transformed ▲

Hello everyone, I am Arul Raj. Today, I am going to share my experience with Jothi Ramesh Sir. I have known him for 15 years. When I was studying my 10th standard, there was no light in my home. I was from a very poor background. I heard that there is a free night class which was conducted by the SWF Trust, which was conducted by Jothi Ramesh Sir. So I have joined there. They supported me, trained me, and motivated me a lot. By that, I got to school first, went to college, and got interested in studies. Then, after I complete my 12th standard, I wish to become a scientist. I have chosen BSc physics, MSc physics, and followed by CSIR NET. I went to the CSIR NET coaching center because I wish to do my PhD at the Good Institute. For that coaching, Jothi Sir helped me financially with his own money. Then I got the opportunity to do my PhD in IIT Hyderabad—PhD Physics. So I'm now in the final year, about to finish my PhD. So through this journey, Jothi Ramesh has shared his knowledge, his experience, the law of nature, how to succeed in life, and how to pass the exam. He mentally prepared me a lot, so through this, I achieved this place. I achieved this now. I have published eight international research articles. I thank you once again, Jothi Ramesh sir, for your support. Thank you so much, and thank you all.

▼ How Ramesh Transformed My Mindset and Leadership ▲

I've known Ramesh since our college days back in 2004, and now, as the CEO of a startup, I find myself turning to him for guidance. Running a company has its challenges—balancing sales, marketing, development, and everything in between while trying to make time for my family. It's overwhelming, and I've struggled to prioritize and stay motivated. Ramesh has been a huge help. I've read plenty of productivity books, but none of them really stuck. With him, it's different. His approach is systematic, but also personal. He's helped me shift from negative thinking to a more positive mindset and given me the confidence to tackle sales with a clearer vision. He's also working with me to figure out my long-term goals, not just for my business, but for my life—who I want to be in 1, 5, 10, even 30 years down the line. It's a work in progress, but I'm feeling more grounded and optimistic about becoming a better leader, father, and husband. It's been a journey, and I know I'm getting there, thanks to Ramesh's support.

▼ Unlocking Manifestation with Jothi Sir's Intuitive Coaching ▲

Jothi sir has been an excellent coach these past few weeks. He has a lot of knowledge on how to work with the Universe in order to manifest things we want. He's also able to intuitively tell what is required to be imparted during each session so that the client advances in their journey of removing subconscious blocks for their manifestation to materialise.

He is very patient and has no problem repeating himself. He makes it a point to check in every day, ask how you're doing and make sure your questions are answered. This is outside the regular sessions that run for 90 minutes. He has also read extensively and is familiar with the teachings of great masters, so he can recommend books and techniques from various sources.

I've made tremendous progress towards my goal and feel better overall thanks to his guidance. I'm very hopeful and excited about the upcoming months when I will see more concrete results.

▼ My Transformation with His Psychic Abilities and Spiritual Guidance ▲

I spoke with Mr. Ramesh over the phone & signed up for the three-month program (from July 1st, 2024 to Sept 30th, 2024). When I started, my life was in chaos. Sir healed me from my past traumas, taught me activities like making affirmations/declarations, meditation, etc., & helped me achieve clarity.

Within a month, I experienced many life-changing miracles, with his help & I'm yet to enjoy & experience many such miracles. When I started, I thought that Sir was just a coach. However, spending a few weeks in his guidance, I gradually started to understand his psychic capabilities & divine grace, which he holds.

▼ Powerful Fire Energy, Miracles Unfolding ▲

YOU ARE AMAZING !!!!!

No five stars but five hundred stars. I'm an absolute stranger. Why are you so kind to me, Sir? I don't understand. Everything has a price tag, but you've given me three freebies. What may be the reason? Though I'm a brilliant star in the firmament of scholastics, I'm a long-lost soul according to the material world. My career was totally jeopardized. So I lost all faith in God and believed only in St. Antony, the saint of the Jacobs. But slowly I realised that I cannot give up God. Unwanted, unwitting circumstances I've met. That's why I'm as hard as flint, but today, after talking to you, I realised that God has another plan for me. The fire element you've talked about is entirely different. Combined with the Reiki modality, it has worked many wonders for me. But I didn't know that it was so powerful, so breathtakingly powerful !!! Yes, you proved it to me. For the Catholics, God the Father is revealed among flames, i.e, in the burning bush, where He tells Moses, "I am the Lord thy God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob." Again, while giving Moses the "Ten Commandments," the Father carved the ten commandments on twin tablets in the form of fire coming down from the heavens. The Ten Commandments were given at Mount Sinai amidst blazing burning stones, blinding lightning, thunder, and fierce fire. The blazing picture from the Exodus ran across my mind when you were talking about the fire element.

"Thank You, sir."

Thank You is a little word,

It often brings much joy.

To thank you for a balmy bouquet,

Of the choicest flowers

Of absolute human kindness,

At an unexpected hour.

The last and simple word :

Thank you once more

'Tis mine attitude of gratitude

Always a beatitude !!!

I remain,

Yours gratefully,

▼ Guided By Jothi, Dreams Materialized ▲

Hello everyone, I'm Murugesh. I want to share an unbelievable experience I had with psychic and intuitive life coach Jothi Ramesh. In 2019, just two days before New Year's, my friends and I were planning to sell Wall calendars to various shops. Before we started, I had a 30-minute session with Jothi. He told me, "You will get a 50k quantity order today." I was shocked because we hadn't started yet, but he advised me to talk to the universe and plan everything as if it had already happened. Since then, I've been having sessions with Jothi twice a month, He teaching about the law of attraction and manifestation. Thanks to Jothi Ramesh for that great moment, and I look forward to more in the future.

▼ His guidance helped me rediscover myself and finally embrace my truth ▲

I got connected to Jothi Ramesh sir through LinkedIn, and I still feel grateful for that one small click that brought him into my journey. He is not just a mentor for my psychic course—he is someone who genuinely sees you and helps you see yourself...

What touched me the most is that he never pushes you into techniques or fixed methods. Instead, he guides you in a way that you slowly start meeting your own inner voice... your own truth. He makes sure you don't feel trapped, pressured, or tied to anything. With him, you feel light... you feel free.

There's a very rare intention in him—to set you free, not hold you. To help you find yourself, not depend on anyone.

In every session, his presence feels safe, understanding, and real. He listens, he supports, he gently nudges you towards your own strength... and that's something I deeply value.

If anyone is looking for a coach/mentor who works from pure intention, who truly wants you to grow from the inside out, I would wholeheartedly recommend learning from him. He's been a blessing in my journey :)

▼ Life-Changing Coaching Aligned With Soul Purpose ▲

Hello, Namaste. My name is Gabriel and I've been working with Ramesh this past week on a one-to-one coaching session. We first met for a reading, just for a general intuitive reading back in the end of January right before I was about to embark on a journey of mine going to do some yoga and a self-healing and self-improvement journey.

He gave me a lot of clarity and a lot of guidance without asking or answering any questions. He was very intuitive and he could he could sense and feel the things that were going on within me and also he gave me a lot of good messages and guidance just through his clear cognizance and his different you know psychic abilities and everything and that was really able to help me a lot.

It stuck with me over the couple months while I was doing my yoga journey and traveling and everything and when I came back I was able to actually do a one-on-one session with him this past week I did it and it was phenomenal every day I was learning something new every day I was diving deeper into my own spiritual and psychology as far as things that I'm doing things that I should be doing and maybe some things that I might need to change.

And working with Ramesh, it was perfect. I couldn't have asked for a better coach. This is my first time receiving any sort of life coaching or spiritual coaching, and Ramesh is ten out of ten by far. This week, like I said, he threw a lot of deep topics and a lot of Really Really Really deep concepts that I'm processing and I'm implementing into my life and I have no regrets.

I'm for sure glad and grateful that I found him and that I've been able to work with him and I will be working with him from now on and I recommend to anybody out there that's watching this or on his page or just just a little lost and just needs some sort of guidance like he is he's a great guy he's all about his work he's very committed he's very dedicated he's very passionate about what he does So I kind of asked for a better coach.

And anybody out there that, like I said, if you have any doubts, Ramesh will help you figure it out.

Thank You
