Ernesto Brett Dennison

My style is natural & organic, images that connect you back to moments through storytelling and timeless edits. My work is highly collaborative. I believe in clear communication prior to the big day to understand your goals for the images you would like to receive. I shoot a wedding as if I was one of your guests; raw, sincere, from the inside out. Every couple has a unique story to tell. I am dedicated to documenting each wedding in a way that reflects everyone's individuality. I look forward to connecting with you!

Posing doesn't have to be a nerve-racking task. I'll guide you through every pose by providing supportive, creative prompts and helpful techniques designed to keep you present in the moment and glowing as your best self.	Your photos are yours to cherish and share in your personal world. This license lets you freely use your images for personal social media, family albums, holiday cards, and personal gifts.	I believe guests are an essential detail to the story of every wedding. I guarantee a 95% capture rate for every guest in attendance. This is the only day of your life that you'll have everyone you love in the same room. They deserve to be documented as part of that story.	Selected and edited by hand. My post processing focuses on true tones through a style best described as documentary. I create AI-free, filter-free, artistically edited images that look like you.
