

WILLIAM A. STAVROS, ESQ.

ENNEAGRAM PERSONALITY CONSULTANT

PROFILE

Admitted to the Maryland Bar in 1996, Will has 24 years of courtroom trial experience and has represented thousands of people in court. He practices in both the State and Federal Courts and is dedicated to protecting the rights and interests of his clients through aggressive and personalized representation.

However, his passion for personalized interaction inspired the pursuit of a career in Enneagram Consulting. Will became a trial lawyer because he thrives on intensity, complex human dynamics, and a rigorous approach to human motivations. This fascination led him to study the Enneagram and how it impacts his clients and trial strategy. Will shines as an energetic and interactive trainer and coach, teaching one of the most powerful and insightful tools for understanding human behavior. Will's clients work with him through a variety of tailored workshops to learn how people's core motivations translate into their personal and professional lives.

TESTIMONIALS

"Will did a fantastic job of explaining the Enneagram to our management team. The Enneagram Personality System is a great tool to help you better understand yourself and others. Will applied personalities and scenarios in our real-life business to help accelerate our management training and take it to the next level. As a Sales Manager, I found it very valuable to navigate different personalities with conflict, objections, and motivation. I would highly recommend this presentation to anyone."

~ Mickenzie Hyson,
Maryland Athletic Club

"Will came to our firm to do an Enneagram training and it was phenomenal. He has a passion for this work and it certainly comes out in his presentations. He was able to type each of us within a few minutes of meeting us. In fact, we enjoyed his presentation so much that I invited him back for a second training. We not only got a better understanding of ourselves, but also how to work coherently as a team and how to interact with others to ensure great outcomes for our clients."
