Welcome to the Gratiot Ag Society

The Gratiot Ag Society welcomes you to the annual Gratiot Ag Expo. Let us be the first to congratulate all the participants and award winners at this year's fair. Your participation in the fair has allowed us to continue to grow over the years and add many extras. We hope the changes we have made have enhanced the quality of the fair for its patrons.

The goal of the Gratiot Ag Expo is to bring joy and pleasure to your family.

We would appreciate it if you would give our fair sponsors and advertisers the benefit of your business. If you benefited from their generosity, please give them your thanks as well.

Superintendent's Rules

1. Reserve and assign stalls for all livestock.
2. Be responsible for set-up and clean-up in your department.
3. Do not allow any animals into your building until you have checked them for any health problems, and you have all the health papers required.
4. Try to resolve any disagreements within your department. If unresolved, report incidents to the Fair board.
5. Work with the Fair board each year to review and make project changes.
6. Report to the Fair board at their request.
7. The superintendent is expected to check their building and make any necessary changes known one week before the fair.
8. The superintendent must return the judging sheet and folder to the fair office.
9. The superintendent cannot create new classes without consulting the Fair board.
10. A backup person must be available whenever the superintendent is not. This rule does not pertain to exhibit building superintendents.
11. Strictly enforce the rule: NO SMOKING ALLOWED IN THE BARNS OR DISPLAY AREA.
12. Assign chore duty and always keep the barn neat for the public.
13. Please remind your exhibitors of the times for the trophy pictures.
14. No drinking on the fairgrounds.
15. Superintendents are not allowed to give their opinions to the judges before or during the judging. You are only there to enter the results into the judge's books.

General Rules for Still Exhibit Entries

1. Print name, address, and phone number clearly on the entry form.
2. All entry forms are due at the fair office by June 6th.
3. All exhibits are to be checked in on Wednesday, June 17th, from 4-6 PM.
4. All exhibits will be released on Sunday, June 21st, after the Farmer's Day Dinner.
5. All exhibits will be judged on Wednesday, June 17th @ 6:30 PM until finished.
6. Entries from the previous year are not acceptable.
7. Entry fees must be paid before you can enter the fair.
8. Exhibitors are to demonstrate good sportsmanship. The superintendent and/or Fair board reserves the right to refuse entry or request removal from the fair if anyone behaves in an unsportsmanlike manner. Premium money will be forfeited.
9. Youth exhibitors must put their age on tags and entries.
10. Premium checks will be mailed within 45 days of the closing of the fair.
11. Exhibits that have not been claimed by the close of fair release time will be considered abandoned and will be disposed of as management sees fit. Premiums will not be paid on unclaimed items.
12. Ages will be determined as of January 1st of the current year.

General Rules for Livestock Exhibitor Entries

Horses, Cattle, Goats, and Sheep will be required to pay a $2.00 per head stalling fee.

Chickens and Rabbits are required to pay a $1.00 cage fee.

1. Print name, address, and phone number clearly on the entry form.
2. All entries are due to the fair office by June 6th.
3. All livestock will be checked in on Wednesday, June 17th, from 4-8 pm.
4. Livestock will be released on Sunday, June 21st, after the scramble sale. Scramble animals will be released no later than Monday, June 22nd, at 9 AM.
5. All exhibits must belong to the exhibitor or his/her immediate family (immediate family is grandparent, parent, or sibling).
6. The exhibitor must be present during the judging to handle their own animal. If needed, see the department rules. There is an exception if the exhibitor is exhibiting in another area of the fairground at the time of judging. An unexcused absence will result in the exhibit not being judged, and no premium given.
7. Exhibitors are to demonstrate good sportsmanship. The superintendent and/or Fair Board reserves the right to refuse entry or request removal from the fair if anyone behaves in an unsportsmanlike manner. Premium money will be forfeited.
8. The exhibitor is responsible for the proper care of his/her own animal. The exhibitor must furnish their own water and feed dishes and keep pens clean. Upon departure from the fair, the exhibitor must clean the stalls, or premiums will be forfeited; this includes all livestock.
9. The fair does not provide bedding for your animals. If animals are not cared for, you will forfeit your premiums.
10. Premiums will be awarded according to the judge's sheet, not according to the ribbon on your exhibit. Youth can enter open classes of all livestock departments. Premium checks will be mailed within 45 days of the closing of the fair.
11. NO ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE ALLOWED ON THE FAIRGROUND.
12. G.A.S. will not be responsible for any properties or exhibits not called for by the release time. G.A.S. is not responsible for accidental losses.
13. Ages determined as of January 1st of the current year.
14. Peewee showmen (under 6 years of age) must be prearranged with respective superintendents.

Check-in: Wednesday June 17th, from 4-8 PM
Haul-in Time: When hauling in, register no later than 9:30Am
Judging: Thursday, June 18th, 10 AM
Release: Sunday, June 21st, after Scramble
Sale Entry Fee: $5.00 per class, $5 for showmanship

- Youth selling rabbits must set up their own processing
- Haul-in fee $10.00
- Late fee $25.00

Ribbons will be given to 1st-6th place. There will be no premiums given for showmanship. See the Premiums page for the pay scale.

Small Animal Auction: Sunday, June 21st @ 3 PM. Limit of 2 entries per exhibitor for the auction. Youth selling at the auction are encouraged to invite businesses, friends, and family to attend.

Rules:

1. Specify the number of pens desired, the number of rabbits, and include the sex and breed on the entry form.
2. All stock must be permanently tattooed in the left ear and be legible. The judge will enforce the ear tattoo rule.
3. Fancy rabbits must have a pedigree.
4. All rabbits must be inspected by the superintendent or other Fair official before being penned.
5. Sick rabbits (runny noses, ear mites, sniffles, etc.) will not be allowed to enter. If a rabbit gets sick, it will be sent home so as not to contaminate other animals, the premium will be lost.
6. Meat pens can be 1-3 rabbits between 3 and 5 lbs., not over 70 days old, uniform size, breed, variety, and color. Meat pen rabbits may not be shown in breed competition.
7. Single Fryer (3 to 5 lbs.) or Single Broiler (5lbs and up) consists of 1 rabbit not over 70 days of age.
8. Meat rabbits are judged on meat type only.
9. Rabbits must be entered in the breed class to be entered in the fur class.
10. No substitution will be allowed except in the same class and sex. THIS CHANGE MUST BE MADE BEFORE THE FOLDER GOES TO THE JUDGING TABLE.
11. No breeding of stock in the showroom.
12. Each exhibitor will be responsible for keeping their cages and rabbits fed and watered.
13. Only rabbits staying for the week may be sold in the small animal auction.
14. Exhibitors must show in showmanship to be eligible to sell in the auction.
15. Once an animal is put in the small animal auction, it belongs to the fair. If the buyer does not want the animal after the sale, the animal may be rebid on for donation.
16. Refer to general livestock rules.

Rabbit Showmanship Attire:

All exhibitors will wear long-sleeved white shirts, long black pants, and shoes while showing their rabbit. The rabbit judge will have the final decision on attire, and weather is a factor.

Definition – 4-class and 6-class:

Any breed having an ideal, senior weight of 9 lbs. or under is classified as a 4-class. This is specified on pg. 30 of the 1991-1995 Standard of Perfection.

Any breed having a minimum ideal, senior weight of 9 lbs. or over is classified as a 6-class.

All section in this division have the same classes and premiums.

Gratiot Agricultural Society Would Like to Thank All of Our Sponsors and Volunteers

Words cannot express how appreciative we are for every donation and volunteer that helps keep our little fair going each year!

None of this would be possible without YOU! With every donation and volunteering hour, we are helping keep our agricultural community alive and building the best childhood memories our kids could have.

The ribbons, trophies, and placings will be forgotten over time, but the memories and life lessons will last a lifetime and be passed on to their children to come!

If you would like more info on how you can sponsor or volunteer for the fair, please contact Stephanie Smith (989-436-5699) or Jody Monk (989-529-1540)
