Welcome to the Gratiot Ag Society

The Gratiot Ag Society welcomes you to the annual Gratiot Ag Expo. Let us be the first to congratulate all the participants and award winners from this year's fair. Your participation in the fair has allowed us to continue to grow over the years and add many extras. We hope the changes we have made have enhanced the quality of the fair for its patrons.

The goal of the Gratiot Ag Expo is to bring joy and pleasure to your family.

We would appreciate it if you would give our fair sponsors and advertisers the benefit of your business. If you benefited from their generosity please give them your thanks as well.

Superintendent's Rules

1. Reserve and assign stalls for all livestock.
2. Be responsible for set-up and clean-up in your department.
3. Do not allow any animals into your building until you have checked it for any health problems and you have any health papers required.
4. Try and resolve any disagreements within your department, if unresolved report incidents to the Fair Board.
5. Work with the Fair Board each year to review and make project changes.
6. Report to the Fair Board at their request.
7. The superintendent is expected to check their building and make any needs known one week prior to the fair.
8. The superintendent must return the judging sheet and folder to the fair office.
9. Superintendent cannot create new classes without consulting the Fair Board.
10. A back-up person must be available whenever the superintendent is not, this rule does not pertain to exhibit building superintendents.
11. Strictly enforce the rule: NO SMOKING ALLOWED IN THE BARNs OR DISPLAY AREA.
12. Assign chore duty and always keep the barn neat for the public.
13. Please remind your exhibitors of the times for the trophy pictures.
14. NO DRINKING ON THE FAIRGROUNDS.
15. SUPERINTENDENTS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO GIVE THEIR OPINIONS TO THE JUDGES DURING OR BEFORE THE JUDGING. YOU ARE ONLY THERE TO ENTER JUDGEMENTS INTO THE JUDGE'S BOOKS.

General Rules for Still Exhibit Entries

1. Print name, address, and phone number clearly on entry form.
2. All entry forms are due to the fair office by June 7th, 2021.
3. All exhibits are to be checked in on Wednesday June 23rd, 2021 from 4-6PM.
4. All exhibits will be released on Sunday June 27th, 2021 from 7-9PM.
5. All exhibits will be judged on Wednesday June 23rd, 2021 @ 6:30PM until done.
6. Entries of the previous year are not acceptable.
7. Entry fees must be paid before you can enter the fair.
8. Exhibitors are to demonstrate good sportsmanship. The superintendent and/or Fair board reserves the right to refuse entry or request removal from the fair if anyone behaves in an unsportsmanlike manner. Premium money will be forfeited.
9. Youth exhibitors must put their age on tags and entries.
10. Premium checks will be mailed within 45 days of the closing of the fair.
11. Exhibits which have not been claimed by the close of fair release time will be considered abandoned and will be disposed of as management sees fit. Premiums will not be paid on unclaimed items.
12. Ages will be determined as of January 1st, 2021.

General Rules for Livestock Exhibitor Entries

1. Print name, address, and phone number clearly on entry form.
2. All entries are due to the fair office by June 7th , 2021.
3. Livestock will be released Sunday, June 27th, 2021 after the scramble sale. Scramble animals will be released no later than Monday, June 28th, 2021 at 9AM.
4. All exhibits must belong to the exhibitor or his/her immediate family (immediate family is grandparent, parent, or sibling).
5. The exhibitor must be present during the judging to handle their own animal. If needed, see the department rules. Exception is if the exhibitor is exhibiting in another area of the fairground at the time of judging. An unexcused absence will result in the exhibit not being judged, and no premium given.
6. Exhibitors are to demonstrate good sportsmanship. The superintendent and/or Fair Board reserves the right to refuse entry or request removal from the fair if anyone behaves in an unsportsmanlike manner. Premium money will be forfeited.
7. The exhibitor is responsible for the proper care of his/her own animal. The exhibitor must furnish their own water and feed dishes and keep pens clean. Upon departure of the fair, the exhibitor must clean the stalls or premiums will be forfeited, this includes all livestock.
8. The fair does not provide bedding for your animals. If animals are not cared for you will forfeit your premiums.
9. Premiums will be awarded according to the judge's sheet, not according to the ribbon on your exhibit. Youth can enter open classes of all livestock departments. Premium checks will be mailed within 45 days of the closing of the fair.
10. NO ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE ALLOWED ON THE FAIRGROUND.
11. G.A.S. will not be responsible for any properties or exhibit not called for by the release time. G.A.S. is not responsible for accidental losses.
12. Ages determined as of January 1st, 2021.
13. Peewee showmen (under 6 years of age) must be prearranged with respective superintendents.

Small Animal Auction: Sunday June 27th, @ 3 PM

Ribbons will be given to 1st-6th place. There will be no premiums given for showmanship. See Premiums page for pay scale. Only youth may sell animals in the auction. Only items exhibited in Section 1 and stabled for the week will be allowed to sell in the auction. Youth selling exhibits in the auction are encouraged to invite businesses, friends, and family to the auction.

Rules:

1. Birds should be Pullorum tested before the fair. Testing will be available at the fairgrounds during check-in for birds being exhibited in the fair only. The cost will be $0.50 per bird for youth and $1.00 per bird for open exhibitors. Refer to the general livestock rules for the current requirements.
2. All exhibits must be free of infectious diseases. Any birds showing signs of illness will be removed.
3. Birds may not be caged until checked in by the superintendent or other Fair official before being penned.
4. Birds should be 4 months old except for in meat classes.
5. All birds must remain on display for the duration of the fair. Removing birds early will result in the loss of premiums unless prior permission was given.
6. The Superintendent reserved the right to limit or turn away entries, if required due to space limitations and caging. Pre-enter as soon as possible.
7. Youth may enter both youth and open classes however the same bird may not compete in both divisions.
8. All classes will be judged using the APA Standard of Perfection as a guide and reference.
9. Only the owners and show staff are allowed to handle the birds, anyone caught handling someone else's birds without permission will be asked to remove their birds from the poultry barn and will forfeit premiums.
10. G.A.S. is not responsible for any damages or losses, every precaution will be taken to prevent problems.
11. Judges and superintendent decisions are final.
12. Any problems that are not covered by the above rules will be dealt with by the superintendent or the fair board on an individual basis.
13. Class changes due to mis-entry will be limited to Youth only.

11. No breeding of stock in the showroom.
12. Each exhibitor will be responsible for keeping their cages and rabbits fed and watered.
13. Only rabbits staying for the week may be sold in the small animal auction.
14. Exhibitors must show in showmanship to be eligible to sell in the auction.
15. Once an animal is put in the small animal auction it belongs to the fair. If the buyer does not want the animal after the sale, anyone may purchase it from the fair board.
16. Refer to general livestock rules.

Definition – 4-class and 6-class:

Any breed having an ideal, senior weight of 9 lbs. or under is classified as a 4-class. This is specified on pg. 30 of the 1991-1995 Standard of Perfection.

Any breed having a minimum ideal, senior weight of 9 lbs. or over is classified as a 6-class.

Rabbit Showmanship Attire:

All exhibitors will wear long sleeve white shirt, long black pants, and shoes while showing their rabbit. The rabbit judge will have the final decision on attire and weather is a factor.

All section in this division have the same classes and premiums.
