WEB 3

The “Semantatic Web”

Web 3, also known as the “Semantic Web,” is the current and emerging generation of the web.

Web 3 aims to create a more personalized web experience.

Web 3 also emphasizes the use of decentralized technologies.

Web 3 encompasses the idea of building decentralized applications. (dApps)--platforms or products devoid of centralized control and management.

Web 3 is now spreading into many other sectors. We have been in the forefront of Web evolution. Our new CEBE.World is spreading into other sectors, including the social sector and commerce markets, art, real estate, gaming and more and is combining Web 2 and Web 3.
