

Sharon Jackson Wilder, Esq.

Spoken Word Artist | Entrepreneur | Hospitality Leader

A powerful spoken word storyteller about love, ambition, and the courage to build a life on your own terms.

ABOUT SHARON

Sharon Jackson Wilder is the Co-Founder and CEO of The Oaks Hospitality Group, a multi-property boutique lodging and experiences company and Get Spacii, an event venue discovery and booking platform. A Georgetown Law graduate and nationally recognized leadership and equity executive, she has served in senior policy and advisory roles across universities, institutions, and government.

Together with her husband, she built The Oaks from a single property into a growing hospitality portfolio while raising three sons and advocating for entrepreneurship and community development. Her spoken word work explores storytelling, ownership, love, and generational legacy.

PERFORMANCE: The Weight & The Wonder

A 10–15 minute spoken word performance exploring love, partnership, entrepreneurship, and legacy. Delivered with poetic rhythm and often accompanied by jazz music, the performance invites audiences into an emotional and inspiring journey about building a meaningful life.
