A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Readers,

The story that you are about to see is one that I believe everyone can relate to. This is the story of those who feel like outsiders, those who have ever been confused about how they fit in, those who have ever felt like they don't fit in. This is the story of the journey that we take as we learn who we are, as we grow up, as we try to discover our true selves. This is also the story of a society that restricts, and attempts to define the you they believe you should be.

This is a story that needs to be told at Queen's University. Presented in Spring Awakening are many of the same fears, joys, sorrows, and experiences that students feel as they go through the growing journey that occurs in their time at university. Like the characters of Spring Awakening, we all embark on a journey to find ourselves in many different ways, all with totally different outcomes.

On a personal note, I would like to thank everyone who helped this dream come true. To my amazing cast, thank you for your commitment, dedication, and seemingly endless talent. To my designers, you have created a truly stunning show. To the technical crew, I have the utmost respect for the work that you do, and the tireless hours that you have put into making this show a physical reality. To the band, thank you for the amazing sound that you have given this show. To Carolyn, thank you for leading the band with such grace, and for always being there for me. To Kelly, and the SM team; you are amazing! I can't thank you enough for all the hard work that you have put into making sure that we can tell this story. To my parents, my sister Katie, and all of my family, thank you for your constant support, for always believing in me, and for giving me the freedom to follow my dreams.

Thank you for coming to see this beautiful story, and enjoy the show!
