Welcome

As For Me And My House - Projected On The Screen

Responsive Reading

One: The Lord is our strength and shield...

Many: Our hearts trust in the Lord who lifts us up.

One: The Lord says to us "Be still and know that I am God..."

Many: The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Unison Prayer

Awesome God, we praise You for the work of Your Church throughout the world. Bless us as we gather to worship and to grow as a community of faith. Inspire and empower us, so that the life-giving message of Jesus Christ is cultivated, nurtured, and shared with those around us. We give You all the praise and glory, most Loving and Holy God, Amen!

Children's Moment – Dismissal For Sunday School

Scripture – John 4:1-13

Now when Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John (although Jesus himself did not baptize, but only his disciples), he left Judea and departed again for Galilee. And he had to pass through Samaria. So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there; so Jesus, wearied as he was from his journey, was sitting beside the well. It was about the sixth hour. A woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock." Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again,
