Welcome

Open The Eyes Of My Heart Lord - Projected On The Screen

Responsive Reading

One: I rejoice O Lord in Your Word as one who finds a great treasure!

Many: Great peace have those who love Your Word; nothing can make them stumble!

One: My soul seeks to understand Your Word, so that I might grow in love!

Many: I seek to keep Your Word for all my ways are before You.

Unison Prayer

Great God of Love, we thank You for this time of worship. Speak to us through the Word and through the Spirit. We thank You Lord for Your Holy Scriptures which have been lovingly passed down from generation to generation. Encourage us and inspire us to love, read, pray, and to teach Your most precious Truth. Open our hearts and minds to receive that which You want us to learn today. We pray this in the name of the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ. Amen!

Scripture – Acts 16:1-3

Paul came also to Derbe and to Lystra. A disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer, but his father was a Greek. He was well spoken of by the brothers at Lystra and Iconium. Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him, and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

1 Timothy 1:18-19

This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith,

2 Timothy 1:5-7

I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you as well. For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.
