into service.

Welcome to the ultimate executive jet. The iconic Boeing 747—widely known as the “Queen of the Skies”—revolutionized global air travel. Instantly recognizable by its distinctive upper-deck profile, the 747SP stands as a lasting symbol of engineering excellence, innovation, and architectural achievement.

This Boeing 747SP is configured with an elegant executive interior and world-class, comfortably accommodates for up to 60 VIP passengers in a spacious, ultra long range cabin environment. This Executive Boeing 747SP has an excellent pedigree and was previously operated on a FAA Part 121 certificate by a highly regarded and experienced Boeing flight department. This 747SP offers proven safety, reliability and unmatched comfort.

Our 747SP will be delivered with a freshly completed C inspection, ensuring readiness and structural integrity for immediate service and worldwide operation with FANS-1/A modifications. Offered exclusively by CCI for sale or lease; joint ownership and select trades considered.

Private viewing can be scheduled in the USA for serious and qualified buyers.

This 747SP was built for the Dubai Government's Head of State use and then sold to the most prestigious casino owner in Las Vegas. The casino refurbished the interior and used the 747SP to fly the casino's top guests from Las Vegas and other cities to their casino in Macau. This Executive 747SP has not be exposed to abusive airline service, has been upgraded and maintained to the highest of industry standards and operated by the casino on their US FAA Part 121 certificate. The 747SP is registered by the new owner in Bermuda and will be delivered with a full C inspection completed and ready for use after the inspection.
