

RiverBend Doodles LLC - Bill of Sale/Guarantee of Good Health

Jamie Blair and Bruce Aaron Davis (reps of RiverBend Doodles) which are (seller)and(breeder) make the following warranties to buyer, in consideration for the purchase of a puppy.

Buyer agrees to pay the total sum of _____ for a _____puppy. By submitting this Guarantee and Contract, you agree that you are accepting the policies of RiverBend Doodles. A $300.00 non-refundable deposit (AKA, a $300.00 non-refundable reservation fee) is required to reserve a puppy. The non-refundable deposit/reservation fee will be applied towards the total price of your puppy. We reserve the right to first pick puppy from any litter and to refuse sale of a puppy if at any time, we feel that we cannot meet the buyer's needs. If the sale is terminated by the breeder, the deposit/reservation fee will be returned. The deposit is nonrefundable for any other reason.

Genetic Guarantee: RiverBend Doodle puppies come with a two year (24 months of age) genetic health guarantee against all of the conditions that we genetically test our parents for; Hips, Patella, and Elbow dysplasia, Cardiac, CERF (eyes), DM (Degenerative Myelopathy), Neonatal Encephalopathy, and VonWillebrand's. The buyer has Five (5) days from the time of receipt to have dog examined by veterinarian. Proof of examination must be provided to Seller. This guarantee will be terminated immediately if dog is not examined within the allotted time. Should the dog be found to have Dysplasia before 24 months of age, Buyer must provide Seller with proof in the form of documentation from OFA. Seller reserves the right to confirm results by requiring the dog be examined by our veterinarian at the Buyers expense before a refund is provided. All Veterinarians notes, test results, and itemized bills must be sent to the Breeder. The hip guarantee shall be null and void if the dog is determined to have suffered injury, neglect, has been overweight, or has been exposed to excessive jumping or exercise. Expenses pertaining to testing, treatment and exams to confirm a diagnosis are the responsibility of the Buyer. The Breeder does not assume any responsibility for injury to the dog or expenses for the puppy once it is in your possession. If the puppy should perish from any suspected congenital defect, an autopsy must be performed at the Buyers expense, by a state licensed Vet to confirm diagnosis before reimbursement. Health Guarantee: Puppies will be examined by our vet and receive a health certificate prior to going home and will be up to date on vaccinations and de-worming. We do not guarantee against parasites of any kind or any common minor illnesses that can be easily treated. We are not responsible for viral or bacterial illnesses contracted once in your possession. All veterinary charges or expenses pertaining to testing, medications and treatments for any aforementioned conditions are the sole responsibility of the Buyer. This health guarantee is granted to the original Buyer only and is not transferable to anyone else. The Breeder will have the right to speak to the Buyer's licensed Veterinarian/Veterinarian's regarding any and all conditions or illnesses and request copies of such information as the Breeder may deem necessary in order to make a determination, before reimbursing the Buyer for any reason. Breeder has the right to request buyer see two separate vets who are not associated with one another to confirm diagnosis or request the dog be brought to the Breeders vet for a second opinion at the Buyers expense.

General: Buyer agrees to notify the Breeder of transfer of ownership. Buyer agrees to never surrender this dog to a shelter or rescue, or abandon the animal. Breeder agrees to assist the Buyer with rehoming the dog if the Buyer has difficulty doing it themselves. If the Buyer decides not to keep the puppy for any reason and returns the puppy to the breeder, the Buyer will forfeit any money paid to the breeder for the puppy and a clear health certificate dated within 48 hours would be required to be faxed from the buyer's vet to the Breeder stating dog has no disease or illnesses and is up to date on all vaccinations.

Breeder does not guarantee coat color, coat type or that your dog will be completely non-shedding or exact adult size/weight. The buyer promises to keep the dog in good condition, provide yearly examinations, vaccinations, worming and other care necessary to assure the health of the dog. If Breeder attempts to contact the Buyer using the contact information provided by the Buyer, and receives no reply within 3 days, Breeder will assume Buyer is "uninterested" in the puppy. The deposit will be forfeited and the puppy will then be made available to other potential buyers. It is the responsibility of the Buyer to inform the Breeder if Buyer will be inaccessible for contact. Buyer hereby releases the Breeder and their estate from any liabilities, and/or damages by fault of this dog after the time of sale. Should any disputes arise or need to be addressed they will take place in the County or Town where the Breeder resides.
