

Practicalities and Interesting Cases

On MS Teams

2pm Monday 10th August 2026

|             |                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1400 - 1405 | Welcome                                                                                                                                           |
| 1405 - 1425 | How I do it: Jet ventilation for cath lab ablationsDr Tom GilbeyConsultant Anaesthetist, Oxford University Hospitals                      |
| 1425 - 1450 | How I do it: Anaesthetic set up for minimally invasive cardiac surgeryDr Mindaugas BalciunasConsultant Anaesthetist, South Tees Hospitals |
| 1450 - 1515 | How I do it: TIVA for cardiac surgeryDr Paul BalfourConsultant Anaesthetist, Guy's and St. Thomas' Hospitals                              |
| 1515 - 1540 | How I do it: Anaesthesia for off-pump CABGDr Sarka MoravcovaConsultant Anaesthetist, Harefield Hospital                                   |
| 1540 - 1550 | Break                                                                                                                                             |
| 1550 - 1615 | Interesting cases #1Dr Olivia HaywardAnaesthetic resident doctor, University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff                                   |
| 1615 - 1640 | Interesting cases #2Dr Jon SimonConsultant Anaesthetist, Hammersmith Hospital                                                             |
| 1640 - 1705 | Interesting cases #3Dr Josh SingletonConsultant Anaesthetist, Hammersmith Hospital                                                        |