A Word from Father Peter

A community of faith, sharing the love of the Holy Spirit, seeking and serving Christ in his creation.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

July marks one of the highlights of the summer season with our celebration of July 4. From what I hear, it also marks a significant time of change on LBI with increased traffic and the dreadful Saturday shift of renters who come to share the beauty of this place so many of us call home. The celebration of our nation's independence shifts our awareness from the immediacy of our place on the Jersey Shore to the history of our nation in what is approaching 250 years.

In the Episcopal Church, Independence Day is celebrated with a proper collect and readings for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. I would like to share the collect for that day:

Lord God Almighty, in whose Name the founders of this country won liberty for themselves and for us, and lit the torch of freedom for nations then unborn: Grant that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Even though the Episcopal Church published our first Book of Common Prayer in 1789 and revised it in 1892, only in 1928 did we celebrate Independence Day with a collect in the Book of Common Prayer. That first collect, which referred to the "our fathers (who) won their liberties of old," was expanded in 1979 to speak of "the founders of this country" since many Native Americans are Episcopalians and that original collect would not match their experience.

In times of conflict among the different groups in our nation, July 4 reminds us of our common heritage and our prayer arises for maintaining "our liberties in righteousness and peace." These comments on the history of the July 4th collect enable us to see how our prayer expands to become more inclusive of all the members of our church and the various historic circumstances which make this a nation of people from different cultures and national backgrounds.

On July 4, I invite you to pray this collect for our beloved country. Most of us who are Episcopalians know that our church enjoys a history of creating a big tent in which diverse political opinions are respected even as we work to make our church and society a more inclusive community bringing into our houses of worship and neighborhoods people who do not look like us yet who are the beloved children of our God and so we call them our sisters and brothers.

We Episcopalians bring this unique gift to our nation of knowing how to create this big tent of inclusion and respect. May God bless us all and strengthen us to become vehicles of God's grace to all whom we meet.

Peace.
Fr. Peter

Words From Your Wardens

Your Vestry and Search Committee have attended an Anti-racism Seminar required by the Diocese. It is given to insure that as we interview and call a new Rector, we are able to do so without perpetuating racism. We learned how to actively oppose racism by challenging attitudes, behaviors and beliefs that we may hold and that perpetuate racism.

The temperatures have been hot, hot, hot! New air conditioning in the church and offices should be up and running by the time you read this. Thank you very much to Larry Peacock for getting bids, interviewing companies and overseeing this major capital improvement. Painting of the choir loft has given it a greatly needed freshening. The altar wall was also painted as we removed the old speakers above the altar and added small air returns you now see there.

Next up is the Rector's office painting that got delayed this spring. Our intent is to freshen up this space, repair the bathroom in the office and purchase a new desk that fits the space.

Remember that we are always available for your questions and thoughts and hope to keep an open line of communication and transparency with the congregation.

Peace.

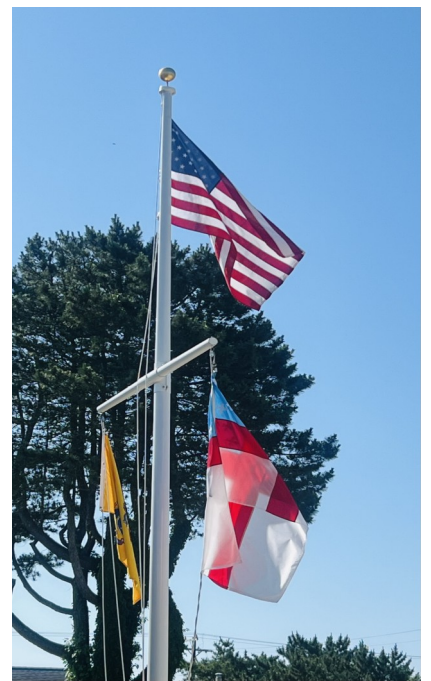

Pat & Dave, Wardens

NEW FLAGS ARE FLYING!

Rich Cashel and Vince Contreras raise the new American flag, graciously donated by Cindy Longenbach's brother, Chris Jones.

They are also hoisting new vibrantly colored Episcopal and NJ State flags.

Minister of Music

THANK YOU CHOIR!

The Choir of Holy Innocents will be singing for Sunday morning services through July 6th, and then taking off the rest of the summer.

Please thank our members for their musical offerings, as well as their time and dedication. I know the choral music will be missed until they return in the fall. (not pictured in the photo Larry Peacock & Ellen Kehr)

Yours in Christ,
Ellen Dondero, Minister of Music

Sandwich Ministry

The Sandwich Ministry began at Holy Innocents' in January 2024. Since then, we have produced 1,360 bagged meals that were distributed to those facing food and housing insecurity. A group of between 9 and 13 parishioners meet on the second Wednesday of every month from 9:30 until 10:45. They produce 80 bagged meals that typically include a sandwich, napkin, water bottle, oranges, carrot sticks, granola bar, and cookies. The Nook (food pantry/food assistance branch of Bright Harbor) has a driver pick up our meals by 11am on the second Wednesday of the month. In the 18 months we've been working, 23 different parishioners have participated. Everyone is welcome, and although there is a core group of "monthlies", different people arrive each month to pitch in. There is laughter, almost always some counting confusion, and always a feeling of doing something good for someone struggling. Please check it out. Our next time will be Wednesday, July 9 at 9:30 in Martin Hall/Kitchen. ~ Alexa Fahner

A new air conditioning system will be installed in our sanctuary in the coming weeks. It became clear at the end of last year that the 20+ year old system was beyond repair and needed total replacement. An engineering firm prepared a design that will provide more even cooling with units in the choir loft, as well as behind the altar. Bare with us as construction continues in the sanctuary. ~ Larry Peacock

ECW Father's Day Boutonnière Making & Church Audit

Episcopal Church Women making boutonnières for Father's Day!

It's been very busy here at Holy Innocents'. We are in the process of doing an audit as required by the Diocese during our Transition & Search.

Many thanks to Ellen Dondero Meyer, Jeannette Bond and Robin MacMillan (not pictured) for volunteering to help us with this paperwork intensive process.

Almighty God, you know the needs of your Church in every place. Look graciously upon us, the people of Holy Innocents' Episcopal Church, and grant us the guidance of your Holy Spirit as we seek a new Priest for this parish. Give us discernment, wisdom and confidence in your timing. We pray for the life of our parish, that we may continue to be to be strengthened in our mission. All this we ask as we walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen

Environmental Education & Advocacy Committee

Six Easy Things You Can Do To Conserve Energy and Reduce Your Carbon Footprint

- 1. Change the filter in your furnace: Keep heating and cooling systems running efficiently.
- 2. Do not place lamps near a thermostat: The thermostat senses the heat produced from the lamp, which can change how often your heat or air conditioner will run.
- 3. Reduce plastic and paper bag consumption by using recycled reusable bags. Less waste in our landfills and oceans.
- 4. Combine car trips: Plan your errands to reduce transportation time.
- 5. Recycle aluminum cans, glass bottles, plastic, and paper!
- 6. Plant a deciduous tree: Three or more large trees strategically placed on sunny sides of a house shade it from the hot summer sun, which can reduce air-conditioning costs by as much as 30 percent.

A New Ministry At Holy Innocents'

TOGETHER HELPING OUR PARISHIONERS IN NEED

Would you like to help one of our parishioners get to a doctor's appointment?
Go grocery shopping for them? Or take them shopping?
Take out their garbage/recycling cans?
Take a meal to someone?
Visit someone who is lonely?

I just need your name and phone number. Tell me what you are willing to do for our parishioners.

Are you someone who needs help, but you don't want to bother anyone?

I totally understand how hard it is to ask for help, but I do feel like we have people in our parish who are more than willing to reach out. Let me know your needs. I will do my best to find someone to help you.

I am willing to be the contact person to coordinate this.

A Prayer for our Nation on Independence Day

Lord God Almighty, you have made all the peoples of the earth for your glory, to serve you in freedom and in peace. Give to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. --The Book of Common Prayer, page 258

July Parishioner Spotlight ~ Mike DeCicco

Hi. I'm Mike DeCicco, born and raised in Maplewood, New Jersey. My two brothers, sister and I all went to the same grammar and high schools, as did my children. Our family led a simple life, living on a policeman's salary, while my mother was a homemaker. My maternal grandmother lived close by, as did most of my mother's 10 brothers and sisters. We were a big (mostly) happy Italian family and I never lacked for cousin playmates.

My maternal grandfather, who died before I was born, had owned a large construction company in the 1930s and it had been my father's dream that my older brother and I would go into the same business. In 1956, after my brother Jim was discharged from the Army and I graduated from high school, with help from our father, we started a construction company called DeCicco Brothers. I couldn't believe that at the age of 17, I was the owner of a small business and partially responsible for the work of men more than twice age. After a while, however, Jim and I had other ideas and the business only lasted five years.

I started college at the age of 22, married my first wife and had four children by the time I was 31. I worked several jobs, in banking and as a school teacher and administrator, but I had always been interested in public service. I was asked to run for a seat on the Township of Maplewood governing body and by some miracle, I won. By now my father had advanced to police captain and I was in the position of being my father's supervisor. It never became a problem, however, because ten days before I was sworn in, my father died. My acceptance speech was bittersweet.

My new position brought me to the attention of Governor Brendan Byrne who appointed me to be Deputy Director of the Lottery Commission. Working in Trenton and living in Maplewood proved to be a strain on our family life, however, and my first wife and I divorced. I found a job at NJ Transit in Maplewood so I was closer to home and nearer to my children, the youngest of whom was still in high school. I'm happy to say that I rarely missed a lacrosse game during his last two years and his successful lacrosse career at Rutgers.

My life took a dramatic turn a few years later when, while teaching a course on drugs and alcohol for NJT executives, I was introduced to Kay Regan. She was in charge of the Capital Funding Department and that evening I called to ask her out. Our first date was October 11 and on New Year's Eve I asked her to marry me. We were married at Trinity Episcopal Church on Wall Street in Manhattan and the next 36 happy years are history. Kay was a big help and support during the 6½ years I spent working and going to night school but I was finally awarded my M.A. degree in 1999. I ended my career at NJT in 2004, working as a psychotherapist in the Employee Assistance Department.

Anticipating retirement, Kay and I moved to an adult community in Waretown where we have lived for the past 21 years. During my "retired" years at Greenbriar, I have taught at Kean University, worked as a mediator for Ocean County and served on the Board of Directors of our community for eight years, one as President.

Parishioner Spotlight Continued

As an aside, during this time, Kay served as Co-President of the Greenbriar Women's Club and President of the Board of Directors of the Ocean County Literacy Volunteers. The pictures in the collage show my relaxing and domestic sides – one vacationing in Hawaii, one with our kitten, and one decorating Christmas cookies.

When we first moved from north Jersey in 2003, we actively searched for a church and knew we had found a home when we visited Holy Innocents'. Fr. Frank was in the pulpit and we were warmly accepted at coffee hour. During the summer, the 19-mile trip to Beach Haven can be a trial but we've learned to adjust our timing and accept the traffic. We rejoice when the lights are turned off. We were grateful for Fr. Frank's long tenure at Holy Innocents' and we felt blessed to worship under Mtr. Caroline's too-short stewardship but we are confident that the Search Committee will find the right person to shepherd us in the future.

I participate at Holy Innocents' by ushering and greeting people and attending various events and functions. I enjoy the coffee hour and the people I talk with. The picture of me at the Silent Auction with all the gift cards was taken after my winning ticket was selected two years ago.

Bible Study/Book Club

The Bible Study/Book Club was on hiatus for the month of June and will resume meetings on Thursday July 10th. As usual, we will meet in Martin Hall at 2:00 pm or via Zoom. The Zoom link will be sent closer to that date.

Our first book for July will be Luke in the Land: Walking with Jesus in His First-Century World by Kristi McLelland. Lifeway Books, $24.99 with video access:

Follow the author through Israel in this seven-session video-based study that takes you to locations in Israel that are mentioned in Luke's Gospel. See how Jesus, the Messiah, brought His kingdom to earth for His people." If you haven't visited the Holy Land yet, this is a visual introduction to significant locations in the gospel of Luke, and if you haven't read that book of the Bible from beginning to end, here is an opportunity to do so.

For more information or to sign up for notices and the Zoom link, please email or text Leila Sullivan at 919-280-4602.

American Flag Cake Recipe~ A Fourth of July Favorite!

INGREDIENTS

- 18 1/4 ounces vanilla cake mix
- 8 ounces cream cheese
- 9 ounces frozen whipped topping (slightly thawed)
- 3 tablespoons powdered sugar
- 1 pint blueberries
- 1 to 2 pints raspberries

DIRECTIONS

1. Gather all ingredients
2. Prepare cake in a 9 by 13 inch baking dish, according to package directions.
3. Let cake cool 15 minutes, then invert onto a serving platter to cool completely. Freeze cake while you prepare the frosting (this makes the flag cake easier to frost).
4. With an electric mixer beat the cream cheese, whipped topping and powdered sugar until smooth.
5. Frost flag cake with this frosting.
6. To decorate your flag cake, outline a square in the top left corner with blueberries. Fill in with remaining blueberries, leaving some white space showing through. These are the stars on your flag cake. Make several lines of raspberries next to and below the blueberries. These are the stripes of your flag cake.

Refrigerate flag cake until ready to serve. Serve and enjoy! TIP: If your frosting seems a bit runny, freeze the cake 15 to 45 minutes before adding the berries. Then you can either freeze the flag cake until 2 hours before serving (leave it out to thaw) or refrigerate until ready to serve.

Church Dedication Anniversary Prayer
by Paul Berchtold, February, 2011

Let us celebrate a grand feast,
From the greatest to the least,
Let us rejoice, on this happy morn,
The special day our church was born.

God bless those who planted the seed,
And those who gave to every need,
And those who labored, with such care,
To build this church, God's House of Prayer.

May we follow their example bright,
Generously live, do what's right,
Like them, may we, give God our best,
So our souls can find his rest.

May all who come find peace and light,
May God's presence and his might,
Gently guard this holy place,
May all find joy, abundant grace.

Thank you, God, for what's been done,
Here at this place, through your Son,
May your work, keep on growing,
Love and peace overflowing. Amen.

143rd Anniversary as a Parish on July 9th!!

FINAL CONCERT IN OUR SPRING SERIES WAS A GREAT SUCCESS!!

Thank you to all who attended, brought food, helped set up, and helped clean up for the concert.

Capital Singers of Trenton did not disappoint, nor did the audience (over 150 people in attendance). It was wonderful to see our church so full! Thank you!

Parish family who sang in the concert included Jean Nelson, Joan Melega, Chloe Dondero, as well as me. We had a blast!

Thanks to Barbara Wheeler for the photos.
