A Word from Fr. Peter

A community of faith, sharing the love of the Holy Spirit, seeking and serving Christ in his creation.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As we enter into the Season of Advent, many of us prepare to decorate our homes with beloved Christmas ornaments and our nativity sets. For many of us this season focuses our attention on Jesus and his birth. Some of us may recall helping our children understand the sacred character of this season with a birthday cake for Jesus. Such a focus shifts us away from the dominant secular celebrations which focus on gift giving and receiving and the economic boost which holiday spending creates.

During Advent, the church does not present us with a "cute baby Jesus." We encounter the challenging character of John the Baptist and his threats of impending doom which marks the coming of our God. Only on the fourth Sunday of Advent do we hear the story of the visit of an angel to Joseph in a dream and the announcement of the birth of Jesus. Perhaps this alternative focus of the readings might alert us to the presence of an Adult Christ at Christmas. One of the most endearing stories involves the appearance of the Magi from foreign lands who come to Jerusalem searching for the King of the Jews. What if this story was showing us the acceptance of the Risen Christ by the Gentiles in the persons of the Magi and the failure of the scribes to follow their own advice to the Magi of going to worship the newborn King of the Jews? What if this story served as a reinterpretation of Isaiah 60: 3 with its assertion that "Nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your dawn." And "They shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord." (Isaiah 60:6) What if the Magi are visiting not the Infant Jesus but the Risen Christ? What if the story of the Magi should focus us on the Risen Christ?

If our hearts should focus on the Risen Christ where can we discover this Christ in our day? Jesus clearly tells us that he dwells among the least and the forgotten: "For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me." (Matthew 21: 35-36)

All too often, we have heard these lines from Matthew as an invitation to come to the aid of those in distress. What if we could see this passage as the place which Christ is showing us that place where we can discover Christ in our day? What if we could see the light of the star shining for us over the homes of the hungry and the outsider, the sick and imprisoned? What if we could meet Jesus in these people who usually live outside the circle of our lives? What if we could use the eyes of our faith to see Christ hidden in the mystery of Bread and Wine and then experience that same moment of encounter in the poor and sick?

I encourage you to use this season of Advent to search out the hidden Christ who dwells among us, the hidden Christ in Bread and Wine, the hidden Christ in the hungry and sick. May you be abundantly blessed this Advent.

Peace.
Fr. Peter

Words From Your Wardens

Bells will be ringing! Folks will be singing. The Christmas season is here and we are looking forward to our annual Messiah Sing on Dec. 6th at 4:00PM and Lessons & Carols on Dec. 12th at 7:00PM. Shoebox gifts, the Christmas Giving "Tree" items for children in need and St. Francis Food Pantry donations are due. See dates on calendar.

We would especially like to recognize and give a hearty THANK YOU to our Search Committee for a job well done! Diane Carter led the charge with a handoff to Mike Fahner while she recovered from surgery. Mike and Diane coordinated with the Diocese to get our ads running and led the Search Committee through the tedious task of reading resumes, profiles and obtaining references for candidates. They had a long search process, and we are incredibly grateful for their dedication and drive to find the candidate they felt best fit our needs. Please be sure to thank Diane, Mike, Maggie Aftanis, Howie Dumhart, Judy Hamilton, Bill Kehr, Kim Sparks, and Rich Vaughan when you see them. We all look forward to welcoming Mother Erin on February 1st!

As the Christmas season ramps up, take time to be in the moment, enjoy the frost on a window, the peace of the Holgate tree or the joy of a drive to view the Christmas lights. Take time to be thankful for all we have and the love that Jesus has for each of us.

Peace & Blessings,
Pat & Dave

Helping Parishioners in Need

We'd like to grow this Ministry and need Volunteers to help. We know that a few can't help all the time, but you could help every once in a while if we have many!

DRIVERS Take a Parishioner to a doctor's appointment or shopping: Manahawkin, Cherry Hill, University of Penn, Medford, etc.

HOME HELP Check on a Parishioner to make sure that they have enough food, take trash out or simply be good company with a visit!

PHONE CALLS Call a Parishioner to make sure they are ok, especially if we haven't seen them recently in Church.

Call Judy Contreras to add your name to the list: 856-906-6725-Email: judyc3956@gmail.com

Do You Believe in the Power of Prayer? Would You Like to Join the List of People Who Pray? Thank you to everyone who has helped with prayers when requested. We have seen some amazing results! Recently, I have included some of you who are not officially members of our Prayer Ministry in my request for prayers. Most of you have replied with positive responses! If you don't want to be included in the future, please let me know. If you are not included and would like to be, please reach out to me. You do not need to come to our monthly gathering to offer prayers when needed. We can all use prayers at one time or another. If you'd like prayers for yourself or someone else, let me know and I will send out the information to the Prayer Ministry and other interested pray-ers. Everyone is invited to join us in person! We meet the 3rd Wednesday of each month in our Chapel. Judy Contreras 856-906-6723-Email: judyc3956@gmail.com

Environmental Education & Advocacy Committee

Environmental Education and Advocacy Committee

December Activities

Thank you to the National Audubon Society for offering these Holiday projects

The holidays are often a busy time in the kitchen. Make time to whip up tasty treats for birds, too. These festive goodies will attract an array of avian visitors outside your home.

Suet Wreath

Materials:

- Bundt pan
- Large pot
- Wide ribbon
- 3 blocks rendered suet (available at garden centers)
- 1/2 cup additive-free nut butter
- 9 cups bird seed
- Dried fruits and berries

Steps:

- 1 Over low heat, melt three blocks of suet in the pot. Stir consistently and do not boil.
- 2 Once the suet melts, add nut butter and stir until fully melted. Remove from heat.
3. Add the bird seed to the melted suet.

4. Spray the bundt pan with cooking spray, sprinkle the bottom with berries and fruit, and fill with liquid suet.
5. Refrigerate overnight to harden, and then remove the mold from the pan.
6. Tie a ribbon around the wreath and hang outside three feet or less from a window to prevent deadly post-meal collisions.

Bird-seed Ornaments

Materials:

- 2 cups birdseed, such as Audubon's cherry wild mix
- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 2 tablespoons cold water
- 1/3 cup boiling water
- 12 cookie cutters
- Needle
- Thread

Steps:

1. Combine gelatin and cold water and let sit one minute.
2. Add boiling water and stir until the gelatin is dissolved.
3. Add birdseed and stir the mixture thoroughly to combine.
4. Fill cookie cutters with the seed mixture; press firmly to fill the mold completely. Refrigerate overnight.
5. Let ornaments come to room temperature and gently remove from molds.
6. Use a needle to pull the thread through the ornament, at least a half-inch from the edge, and tie knot.
7. Hang the ornaments from tree branches or your fire escape (if allowed).

Scrumptious Garland

Materials:

- Air-popped popcorn (unsalted and unbuttered, and preferably stale)
- Whole peanuts in the shell (unsalted, preferably raw)
- Cranberries (dried or fresh)
- Apple slices (dried)
- Orange slices (fresh)
- Thread
- Needle

Steps:

1. Unspool a 4-foot-long section of thread; tie a knot or two a couple of inches from one end, and thread and secure a needle at the other.

Environmental Education & Advocacy Committee

2. Thread the ingredients one at a time. Consider starting with an orange or apple slice to provide a secure anchor to build upon, and create your own alternating pattern of ingredients.
3. When only a few inches of thread remain, tie a double knot close to the final item.
4. Repeat steps 1-3 to obtain desired length.
5. Starting at the top of the tree, drape the garland on the branches in a downward spiral, tying on new strands as you go.

In the Spotlight

Parishioner Spotlight is a regular feature in The Post. The purpose is to provide insights into the background and personalities of our fabulous parishioners!

December Parishioner Spotlight ~ Cliff Wymbs

Beach Haven is one of my favorite places, especially in the summer. I appreciate the warm weather during the day and the cool breezes that come in at night. These sea breezes make it comfortable to spend time outside, whether I'm sitting on a porch or taking a walk. The towns themselves have a relaxed atmosphere, and I like the sense of community and tradition that comes with returning year after year.

One of my favorite things about Holy Innocents' is how close it is to home. My commute to Sunday service is only about 30 seconds, which makes it easy to attend regularly. I first started going because my wife is an Episcopalian, but I've come to enjoy the church community and the familiar routine of Sunday mornings.

Jeannette (Bond) and I were married in 1977 (see our wedding picture). The most recent "anniversary" picture is from 2023. We have two adult children, Kate and Mike. They are with us in a picture from 2016, and we are pictured at Kay's graduation with a degree in Chemical Engineering in 2014.

When it comes to food, homemade clam chowder is at the top of my list. I like making it myself, and it's a dish that reminds me of the shore. For drinks, I prefer something simple, a cold beer to go with the meal.

My favorite season is fall. I like the cooler temperatures, the changing leaves, and the general feeling of winding down after summer. My favorite color is powder blue. It's a calming color that I associate with both the sky and the ocean.

For music, I mostly listen to country. I enjoy the stories told in country songs and the straightforward style of the music.

A favorite line of scripture for me is, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." I heard this line often in grammar school because Psalm 23 is so short with six verses, but it stuck with me because of its message of reassurance.

One thing that might surprise people is that I can get sideline passes to Rutgers football games. It's a unique perk that has made for some memorable experiences.

Jeannette and I live in Arizona in the winter and Beach Haven in the summer. A few pictures will show some of our enjoyment of nature.

Finally, I am about to retire after 26 years as a professor. I'm looking forward to having more free time, spending it with family, and continuing to enjoy the simple things that matter most to me—good food, good company, travel and time at the shore.
