Parishioner Spotlight	9-10
May Calendar	11

On May 26th, we'll resume our 7:30 AM Rite I services and the summer season will soon be in full swing. Eastertide (50-days) continues with Ascension Day on May 9th and will end with a festival Day of Pentecost on May 19th and is a representative day of "The Birthday of the Church"! Pentecost is the great festival that marks the birth of the Christian church by the power of the Holy Spirit. Pentecost means "fiftieth day" and is celebrated fifty days after Easter. It marks the prophesied outpouring (Joel 2:28-29) of the Holy Spirit on Jesus' disciples, mother, and family with the sound of rushing wind and tongues of fire as they were gathered together praying 10 days after Jesus' ascension into heaven. The disciples were suddenly empowered to proclaim the gospel of the risen Christ. They went out into the streets of Jerusalem and began preaching to the crowds gathered for the festival. Not only did the disciples preach with boldness and vigor, but by a miracle of the Holy Spirit they spoke in the native languages of the people present, many who had come from all corners of the Roman Empire. This created a sensation. The apostle Peter seized the moment and addressed the crowd, preaching to them about Jesus' death and resurrection for the forgiveness of sins. The result was that about three thousand converts were baptized that day. See Acts 2:1-41. Pentecost marks our entry into "Ordinary Time" and is the longest season of the church year. It's a time that ends up in our secular lives being traffic-filled and busy, but we have a chance to break out of our spiritual boundaries by participating in a few things generated to stretch us and incorporate missional engagement into our lives during this period. First, our Grill Out & Beach Day with the congregation of Cristo Rey (Hispanic congregation from Trenton area.) This fabulous June 1st event needs some volunteers for helping with foods preparation and sharing a meal, but ALSO folks to spend time with our friends, to show them the church, to walk them to the beach and sit with them for a bit or show folks Veterans Memorial Park in Beach Haven. It needs folks to be willing to attend and participate in our bi-lingual service after our meal. What I'm asking is your time. Time itself is a gift and using it can be ministry!

Looking ahead to summer, I'd like to plan some group watching of various services. For example, I'd love for a small group to watch a couple of worship services with me and tell me what you like, dislike, and wonder about. It's also a terrific time for me to remind you to share with your upcoming summer visitors all those things that we have going (which is quite a LOT!) Don't just tell them about Sunday morning, but show them our Facebook page and website, invite them to Evening Prayer, ask them if they'd like to join our book study, or ask if they've seen our church and to come by and have a tour!

May Day

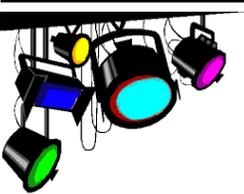

~ by Sara Teasdale

A delicate fabric of bird song
Floats in the air,
The smell of wet wild earth
Is everywhere.

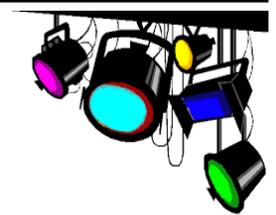

Red small leaves of the maple
Are clenched like a hand,
Like girls at their first communion
The pear trees stand.

Oh I must pass nothing by
Without loving it much,
The raindrop try with my lips,
The grass with my touch;
For how can I be sure
I shall see again
The world on the first of May
Shining after the rain?

ECW Craft Show Update

We did it! The ECW hosted a very successful arts and crafts show, with about 20 vendors participating. The ladies of the ECW sold baked goods, beverages, a hot dog lunch, and 50/50 tickets. One of our own parishioners won the 50/50 drawing...Sherry Johnson!

There was a nice flow of shoppers throughout the day. We were able to open the doors to the sanctuary after a funeral and allow visitors a chance to enjoy our gorgeous worship space. That was one of my favorite times of the day, visiting the sanctuary myself and hearing the sweet compliments about our stained glass window, the flowers (arranged by Sherry Johnson), the beauty of it all!

We were able to add a bit over $1,600 to the ECW treasury in support of our Outreach Programs. While the ECW “sponsored” the show, it was indeed a parish supported event! Thank you to our bakers, set-up and break-down crew, donors from our “Wish List”, planners, kitchen help, all that helped throughout the day! It indeed took a parish to pull off the event!

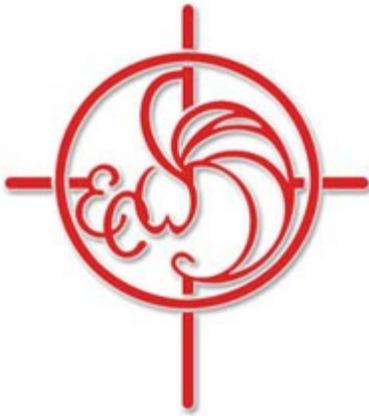

I have heard from several vendors that they very much enjoyed our space and hope we are able to host more shows...a real testament to our success!

Gratefully,
Jeanne Cashel

In spite of the incredibly windy day last Saturday the ECW hosted a very successful arts and crafts show, 20 vendors participated and the ladies of the ECW sold baked goods, hot dogs, soda, and raffle tickets. Martin Hall was overflowing with shoppers from the island and the mainland. For many, it was their first time at Holy Innocents'. Special thanks for Jeanne Cashel for heading up this inaugural event and to all who helped make this event an amazing success! ~ Melissa Wall

Environmental Education & Advocacy

This past winter was cold and windy (brrr) and yet the month of February was the warmest on record. How can that be? To help us understand this phenomena a chart displayed in Martin Hall (on the bulletin board near the exit) shows by month and year all average temps since 1850. Find the year of your birth and then your birthday for this past year. Did you notice any difference? When did the highest monthly temperatures occur? Scientists tell us that warmer temperatures lead to melting snow caps and glaciers, rising seas and more frequent storms. There are steps being taken to minimize rising temps and we can do our part. The most important step is to become more aware and informed. If you need any help reading the chart check with a member of this committee. (Rob Meyer, Chair, Mary Jane Mannherz, Pat Peacock, Gail or Tom Jacobsen).

May Parishioner Spotlight ~ Melissa Wall

[Above is Melissa when she received the ECW Women of Honor award in 2017]

I was born and grew up in rural Ohio. We lived in a very wooded area and didn't have a telephone until I was in eighth grade. My school district was very small; the same 24 kids were in my class until high school. Four districts were consolidated for my high school; my graduating class numbered 62.

My only sibling, Posie, is 9 years older. (We were and still are very close.)

I went to Otterbine College, in Ohio, where I met Charles Wall, who had transferred in his junior year. I majored in health and PE. I graduated in 1967. Charles and I were married a week later.

We moved to Long Island, NY, because we both found teaching jobs there. Our two positions together paid $14,000 a year, far more than we had been earning in previous teaching jobs. Charles was drafted and went to Vietnam. I stayed home (on Long Island) and taught. Charles came home from Vietnam, and we taught for one more year. He then went to Penn State on the GI Bill. He got his master's degree and teaching certification (in special education and administration).

I was pregnant with Matt, who was born on May 7, 1973 – also Charlie's birthday. We had become acquainted with John through Charles' work. John was 6½ when he came to live with us (in September, 1972). John turned 7 on May 7, the day Matt was born – so three Wall males had the same birthday, May 7. Charles and I adopted John on October 29, 1973, which we now celebrate as John Wall Day.

Charles worked as an administrator, and we lived in various places in PA. During these years, I did some teaching, primarily in special education. And I was raising our four sons – John (oldest), Matthew (Matt), Joshua (Josh) (born 1976), and Andrew (Drew) (born 1980). Matt and his wife Jennifer live in PA. Josh works as a life guard on LBI in our summer and in Australia in their summer. He recently married Jacinta Worland in Australia – and I was happy to travel there for the wedding. Andrew is in the Coast Guard. He is married to Leah, and they currently live in Hawaii – so I have also been able to go there to visit family. (Family pictures, from top left moving clockwise: "Boys" and spouses, plus Sammy, our dog, at our 50th wedding anniversary in 2017 (before Jacinta); boys and spouses after Josh had met Jacinta and after Charles had passed away; Matt and Jenn; Josh and Jacinta; Charles and Melissa; Andrew and Leah; John and Melissa)

Charlie was from NJ and always planned to retire on LBI. Charles and I bought a summer house on LBI in 1994. We wanted a place where our kids could come. Our children and their spouses do come every summer -- and they love it. We renovated the house and moved here full-time in 2000. Charles continued to work (at VisionQuest on Rte. 72) until 2004, when he retired. Charles and I celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary in 2017. Sadly, he passed away in 2021.

Parishioner Spotlight Continued

I was a Presbyterian as a child, but neither Charles or I attended church as young adults. When our children were small, I decided it would be good for them to go to church. We lived across the street from an Episcopal church (in PA). Charles chose the Episcopal church because he had gone to an Episcopal church when he was growing up. The whole family continued to participate in church activities as we moved around the state of PA.

When we bought our house on LBI, John and I attended Holy Innocents' in the summer. I went there because it was an Episcopal church and because they welcomed John and me. When we moved to LBI full-time, we started going to coffee hour regularly, and John was truly accepted. At that time, there was not a permanent acolyte, so I asked Father Frank if John could light the candles. He said yes, so John began his ministry of acolyting – and his participation blossomed.

I liked the worship format of the church. I got involved with the Altar Guild. I wanted to be an active participant but not to “jump out.” Coffee hour was a good way to get to know people. Gradually, I became involved with more and more church activities. In 2017, I received the ECW Women of Honor award. I have served on the Vestry and other committees. I now co-chair the Altar Guild and have taken on (or been given!) a leadership role in the Episcopal Church Women (ECW). I love ushering and greeting people.

My favorite things about Holy Innocents' are the friendliness – it is like a family – the choir, the music. People are generous with their time, money, and ideas. It is all very fulfilling! Pictures to the left are of Activities at Holy Innocents' include (clockwise, from top left: ECW World Day of Prayer service that I chaired; helping John with his robe before acolyting; enjoying hors d'oeuvres at a Silent Auction; with Susan Hughes at the 2023 ECW Christmas luncheon; Sammy being blessed by Mother Caroline; helping John light Advent candle.)

BEACHY FUN & GRILL OUT

with the Congregation of CRISTO REY (Christ the King) from Trenton on SATURDAY, JUNE 1st ~ VOLUNTEERS NEEDED ~ ALL WELCOMED

Last August, I began to share ideas about doing something with another parish in our diocese. It turned out that we were invited, as a congregation to celebrate with the phenomenal congregation of Cristo Rey on their name day, Christ the King Sunday. Few were enthusiastic about driving up to Trenton in November, but that's ok... I tried to rent a bus, but it was extremely and prohibitively expensive. Yikes! So, I canceled. I was not sure what to do and then cooked up this idea to host their congregation. Folks got very excited about the possibility of a Beach Day and grilling out together. They want to get to know us.

You might be asking "Why? How do they even know about us?" and you'd be right in wondering this. Well, I've been the chair of the Companion Diocese for a couple of years now and had many interactions with their clergy when I connected them to both Ecuadorian bishops who were visiting for our new bishop's consecration last summer. I am also the Convener of the Missions Commission (formed last year) from all the heads of international mission and ministry groups in our diocese.) So, I have had a lot of connecting with our Hispanic Commission and our sisters and brothers. A few folks have heard about our proposed venture and it has generated some buzz and some excitement. With all that said, we will be invited again to join with this joyful congregation in something that they present, but this gathering will allow us to join together and get to know each other. I hope you will treat it like our Annual Picnic and bring your family, friends, and also help out as you are able! I AM VERY EXCITED ABOUT THIS FUN EVENT!! ~ Mtr. Caroline+
