THE PARISH POST

A community of faith, sharing the love of the Holy Spirit, seeking and serving Christ in his creation.

The Parson's Place

I am really looking forward to all the things this Fall has to bring. Last year at this time, we were looking forward to the morale boost of our Annual Picnic and this year I feel like we need just that again! We have still been together, yet separate for another long period of time as we remain cautious about the Delta variant, our safety, and the busy high season of summer on LBI. Moving the picnic to the end of September (the 26th) allows us to prepare well, stay vigilant, and to be super ready to have a grand time outside at the beginning of the Fall. I hope you will invite your friends and family. We will also be inviting the neighbors on the church block and we hope they will come!

At the time of writing this Parish Post, I will soon be away for seven days of vacation in the Adirondacks. I'm very much looking forward to being in nature and cooler temps even though it may rain a good bit. I enjoy hiking very much in spite of the fact that I don't do "up" too well. I simply tackle it at my own pace. While my daily average of walking is 13-15,000 steps per day, it's definitely in the flatness of Beach Haven! I enjoy thinking and praying while I walk. It calms me to focus my attention on others and to be at peace with myself and life even though the world holds much turbulence. I enjoy pondering with the Holy Spirit. For me, it's also about practicing gratitude and noticing things around me. This is also one of the reasons I enjoy photography – because I get to focus on the magnificent and the minute details of tiny and precious things. This reminds me once again of Mary Oliver's poetry so I'll share this poem with you, hoping you will also enjoy it. Fall is my favorite season.

Fall
the black oaks fling
their bronze fruit
into all the pockets of the earth
pock pock
they knock against the thresholds
the roof the sidewalk fill the eaves
the bottom line
of the old gold song
of the almost finished year
what is spring all that tender green stuff compared to this falling of tiny oak trees
out of the oak trees
then the clouds
gathering thick along the west then advancing then closing over breaking open the silence
then the rain
dashing its silver seeds
against the house
~ Mary Oliver (1935 – 2019)

THANK YOU!! To all who donated to our backpack drive. We collected 62 backpacks filled with an array of school supplies. Our Family Promise ministry received some of the backpacks as well as a school in Camden, NJ. Thank you all for your generous donations and thank you Maggie Aftanis and Rob Meyer for taking on this ministry!

Dishing With The Deacon

June and August are the two most popular months for weddings. My son and his fiancé are marrying September 6th, just over the border from August. Their wedding has had a number of effects on me as I contemplate their vows. I have been asking myself what does it mean to marry someone. For Carin and Ben's wedding a primary reading will be from I Corinthians 13. Most of us will recognize this....

The Gift of Love

<sup>1</sup> If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

<sup>4</sup> Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. <sup>5</sup> It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. <sup>6</sup> Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. <sup>7</sup> It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

<sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part, <sup>10</sup> but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. <sup>12</sup> For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

As I read this over, I thought maybe this would be a good idea for a couple to read this every anniversary and ask themselves whether these are guiding principles in their marriage. In fact, wouldn't it be a good idea if I read it at least once a year and asked myself if this reading guided my behavior? Maybe we should all read it and ask ourselves....

AMEN

Love from your Deacon ~ Judy

From Our Minister of Music

Rehearsals will resume Wednesday September 15th. We are happy to have new members, so if you would like to join us, please do!

We rehearse every Wednesday evening 7pm-8:30 and sing for Sunday services, as well as Holy Week and other special services. You don't need to read music, or have a great voice, but it is helpful to have a great sense of humor, and a strong desire to make music to the Glory of God. That is NOT very complicated or challenging, is it?

If you'd like to join us, or have any questions about joining, please contact me at the email address below.

Ellen Dondero, Minister of Music
ejdondero@comcast.net

Recovery Sunday ~ September 26th

Recovery Sunday is a movement within the church to celebrate those in recovery, educate all of us about addiction and the recovery movement and provide hope and to pray for those in need of recovery and their families and friends.

Recovery is part of the healing ministry of Jesus and The Church. Recovery Ministries, a nationwide network of Episcopal laity and clergy does a good job of explaining the role of the church in this work.

On this day at Holy Innocents', someone, active in the Recovery Movement here in the Diocese of New Jersey, will lead an Adult Forum following the 9:30 worship service. The sermon will reflect on recovery and we will follow our usual pattern of worship.

Recovery Sunday is for all of us because we live in a society of addictions. Substance abuse and addiction are at epidemic levels. The loss of life and financial costs to alcoholism and binge drinking is staggering. Here are some facts. Add addictions to prescription medication and illegal drugs and we realize addiction is even more devastating to those who are struggling with addiction, their families and our communities.

In the Spotlight

Parishioner Spotlight is a regular feature in The Post. The purpose is to provide insights into the background and personalities of our fabulous parishioners! We hope you enjoy getting to know the people of Holy Innocents'!

I was born in Montclair and lived there or nearby for most of my life, both growing up and after we were married. I went to Stephen's College in Columbia, MO. I majored in theatre and foods and graduated in 1955. Then I returned to Montclair. I wanted to work in New York City, hoping to work in the theatre in NYC. I worked as a hostess at Schraft's. Although I did have an audition once, I never worked in the New York theatre. I later worked for some dentists in Montclair.

Because of my interest in the theatre, I volunteered at the Montclair Operetta Club. Near the end of 1957, I was working on "cues" (I was one of several people who gave cues to the actors when they forgot a line or needed a cue) and was asked to do a bit part in "Kiss Me Kate." Kneeland had been asked to do a part in this show, also, so we played opposite each other.

Around the same time, I had wanted to sing in the choir of the St. James Episcopal Church, which I attended with my family. That church only allowed male singers in the choir at that time. I was allowed to join the choir at Union Congregational Church. Through that connection, I became involved with some people who put together religious shows. They were called the Pilgrim Players and came from a group called the Bishop's Company. They needed someone for a part and both Kneeland and I filled roles with them. Because of these theatre connections, Kneeland and I were together in rehearsals almost every night. We announced our engagement on January 1, 1958, and were married on April 12 of the same year. Our daughter Suzie was born in 1959, and Amy was born in 1962.

I have a fun story to share about an early date with Kneeland, who asked me if I would like to come up and see his grandfather's etchings. His grandfather had done etchings of steamships – tugboats, tows, etc. Someone had put the etchings in a book, categorized by type. Many of these are now framed and hang on the walls of my home. Sadly, the grandfather/artist was on the Titanic and was killed when that ship sank.

I have been coming to LBI since I was born. My mother's sister had a house on 23rd Street. In 1940, my father bought a house on the corner of 21st Street, the street where I now live. He paid $4000 for that house. He eventually bought four lots, including the lot that this house, which was built in 1963, is on. The house was expanded in 1993.

My parents bought the Holiday Snack Bar in 1958 and opened it in 1959. It was in the family for 36 years. Kneeland and I took it over in 1969 or so.

I moved to LBI full-time in 1993. Kneeland retired from teaching at Middlesex County College in 1994 and moved here also.

I sang in Island Singers. Mary Biddle accompanied Island Singers and was the organist at Holy Innocents'. She asked me if I would like to sing in the Choir, and I was interested. The people at Holy Innocents' made me feel welcome and comfortable. I knew some of the Choir members from Island Singers. St. James Episcopal Church in Montclair, where I had been a member for most of my life, was considered "basement Episcopal," meaning that there was little ceremony and some of the rituals were lacking or rather simple. Holy Innocents' was quite different and included more rituals and ceremony, which was an adjustment. Of course, I did adjust and am quite comfortable with what occurs here now.

Parishioner Spotlight Continued

I cannot drink hard liquor but enjoy wine. I enjoy food, especially making new things and experimenting. I enjoy putting things together and seeing what comes out.

I enjoy every season as it comes around, but probably not summer so much.

As far as music, anything that doesn't blast my ears. I like some country, show tunes, some opera, classical. My favorite musicals are "Les Miserables," "The Wiz," and "Me and My Girl," especially since the Broadway production starred Jimmy Brennan, who started out at the Surfflight Theatre.

I don't know that I have a favorite line of scripture, but the 23rd Psalm is my favorite psalm.

I was asked once in an interview what annoys me most. I am annoyed when I call someone on the phone and they act as though it is an imposition to get the call.
