

Liability Waiver for Jodi Leigh Wellness

I understand that my instructor is not a clinician and cannot treat, diagnose, or cure any disease, illness, or injury. In all cases, clients should join classes with approval from their trusted medical professional and should always follow their doctor's advice.

Clients take full responsibility for their own health and any illness or injury that may occur. Clients cannot and will not hold their instructors or any employers or affiliates responsible in case of accident or illness during practice.

I have read and understood the terms and conditions of all classes and sessions as outlined above.
