

Why join?

Learn about how services are delivered in Ontario and how to navigate this complex system

Advocate for the preservation of existing services as well as an increase in service accessibility.

Learn more about communication differences and how you can help your child.

Be informed of local and provincial issues through our newsletter.

Our Resources

OAFCCD has a number of resources for parents and families including:

- The official website
- The official handbook, "A Parent Guide to Supporting Success at School - Helping Students with Speech and Language Impairments."
- Tip sheets on how you can help your child to develop their communication skills
- Newsletters – Distributed by e-mail at least three times per year
- OAFCCD posts on Social Media:
 - Twitter | twitter.com/oafccd
 - Facebook | facebook.com/OAFCCD
 - Instagram | instagram.com/oafccd/

Ontario Association for Families of Children with Communication Disorders

What is OAFCCD?

OAFCCD is a network of parents, caregivers and Speech-Language Pathologists who work with families and individuals to provide support and ensure children and youth have access to Speech and Language Services.