

Kingdom of Hawai'i

Her Royal Majesty Akahi Wahine
Queen of the Kingdom of Hawai'i

November 5, 2016

Chief Gees-Due OO-Neh-Gah Usti
Southern Cherokee Nation and The Red Fire People

Dear Chief Usti,

As the Reigning Queen of the Kingdom of Hawaii and her people, we are both grateful and honoured for beginning this most wonderful association whereby our both people having experienced equal and continuing suffering by those who to this very day still oppress our Na Kanaka Maoli, can finally identify alongside your people the meaning of not giving up a single inch of our land and heritage.

We the people of the Kingdom of Hawai'i, rejoice at this most wonderful opportunity of unification between our two nations. We now look forward to the day when our two people can freely meet on our land so that the doors of love and economic development between our nations will forever blossom for both our people, including for those who will join our combined cultural heritage respect and peaceful understanding. Mahalo.

Most respectfully,

HRM, Grace Mokihana Cooper (AKA - Akahi Wahine)
Reigning Queen – Kingdom of Hawai'i.
