6-PIECE FOLK ROCK BAND

SILVER DOGS ARE BACK!

This popular folk rock band went their separate ways in 2011 but now, Silver Dogs are returning with a fresh new sound and new members, all set to delight Rock Folk fans, old and new!

Becky Haslam (vocals), Darren Dean (lead guitar) and Neil Aspinall (drums and percussion) are joined by new members Gary Gordon (bass and keyboards), Wendy Ross (violin) and Steve Wood (keyboards and acoustic guitar).

For those people yet to become acquainted with Silver Dog's unique sound, the six members are drawn from a variety of musical backgrounds and influences (including traditional folk, rock, prog rock, blues and classical) which results in an live experience that is unlike that of any other English folk rock band.

Their live set is built around original interpretations and treatments of traditional songs, stories and legends, as well as their own original material. With an ability to blend acoustic, ambient and rock elements, Silver Dogs appeal to lovers of Folk and Rock music alike.

"These gifted musicians use a variety of superb instrumental and vocal sounds to share their love of folk music with a large and enthusiastic audience." - Lancaster Guardian

"In my opinion, Silver Dogs are the best band to ever come out of the North-West. I am thrilled they are returning to the live circuit." - Lynda Lamb, Sound Engineer
