Oscar Philly delivers humor, heart, and impossible breath control, fusing old-school hip-hop grit with modern R&B smoothness. A multi-instrumentalist, producer, and lyricist, his sound blends live musicianship with sleek digital textures, driven by a passion for connection and storytelling.

Originally from Colorado and now based in Portland, Oregon, Oscar has performed everywhere from venues dotted across mountain towns to sold-out shows at The Fox Theater in Boulder, releasing multiple projects with Chewy & Bach and Retro Spects & Oscar Philly. Currently pursuing a degree in Sonic Arts & Music Production at Portland State University, he's crafting a new EP that explores themes of growth, reflection, and human connection. To contact Oscar Philly for your next event, please visit www.oscarphilly.com
