THE NEED FOR RELATIONSHIPS

1 Thessalonians 2:7-8

I. INTRODUCTION

- A. Elevators are unusual places, aren't they?
- B. The elevator is a small-scale version of our world today.
- C. How was he able to create significant relationships?

II. BODY

- A. Acknowledge Your Need for Others (v. 7)
 1. Just as a child needs a mother, we need each other.
 2. Abraham Maslow, a nonbeliever, reinforced God's original design
- B. Develop Deep Relationships (v. 8)
 1. Do not take relationships lightly.
 2. This truth was one of Paul's establishing supportive relationships.
 3. In these verses three words that form the basis for developing relationships—care, share, dear
- C. Commit to Being Authentic (v. 8)
 1. It is not enough to admit we need each other,
 2. Assimilation is becoming absorbed in the lives of others

III. CONCLUSION

- A. When we make room for others in our lives the walls of indifference and apathy come down.
- B. When we make room for others we discover the best of others and the best in ourselves.
- C. People need each other. We need to take off our masks, admit our need for each other, cultivate relationships, and strive for authenticity.
