The Chosen is a TV series that takes an intimate dive into the life of Christ and those around him during his ministry. It does a great job of bringing to life each character and significant moments in Christ's ministry and helping the observer to get a stronger sense of what this may have looked like. There will be a small group starting November 5th at 7:00 at the Church. Pastor Nathan will facilitate a time of discussion after watching an episode from Season 1 of the Chosen Series.
