GUESTS: Terri Wehrley-Pyles

COMMENTS FROM PUBLIC: Terri Wehrley-Pyles father passed away and they had people donate money to the village in lieu of flowers. She took it upon herself to drive around town to let the Mayor and council know areas that need visited. She also had a handout. So far, $400 was donated in her father's name and she would like to know what the village plans to do with the money. One suggestion was Hometown Hero Banners. The Mayor promised her he would get with her to tell her how the money was spent.

Mike Bowers, Darke County Economic Development, updated council on what is going on with the Miami Valley Regional Planning Commission. He needs two representatives from the village. The main one has to be an elected official, the second can be village administrator.

MAYOR'S REPORT: Donnie Harmon let everyone know water meters are almost finished. He thanked Jay for all his hard work.

VILLAGE ADMINISTRATOR: Jay Roberts let council know that there are 10 water meters left. There has been no word about the water tower grant. Leaves have been scheduled for pick up.

OTHER REPORTS:

- a. Water/Sewer: Roberts said things were all good.
