ABOUT TBILISI

Tbilisi is the capital city of Georgia. It is a truly amazing and even unique area. It seems that very different eras are intertwined here, and in the neighborhood, within a five-minute walk at a leisurely pace, you can find cozy courtyards, as if transferred here from the 15th century, and buildings.

Cost of living in Tbilisi:

- Local Transport (one way) – ₾0.2 - ₾1.0 ($0.07 - $0.4) Taxi 1 km – ₾3.30 ($1.22)
- Average Utility Costs (monthly) (Electricity, Gas, Internet, Water) - approx. ₾150 (approx. $55)
- Rent (1 bedroom in a shared apartment) – from ₾760 (from $350)

Alte University is in the center of Tbilisi. Because of the location, campus can be reached easily from any part of the city as the bus station is just in front of the entrance door and the nearest metro station is within 10 minutes walking distance.

How to get to campus by public transport?

- Bus – 363
- Metro – Delisi
