Dear Friend in Christ,

I am happy to recommend membership in the Sts. Anna and Simeon Society.

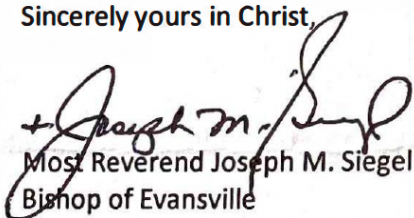

Through this organization, Catholic seniors who are chronically ill, homebound or in nursing facilities are commissioned as prayer warriors for their parishes and the Diocese of Evansville. By uniting your "prayers, works, joys and sufferings" with those of Christ, you offer these spiritual gifts for the salvation of souls, the Church's evangelization efforts, the promotion of vocations to the priesthood and religious life as well as for the enrichment of holy families and for the consolation of grieving parents.

Through your participation in the Society, you will develop a greater sense of the graces that your sufferings can merit for others (and yourself) and a fuller understanding that in Jesus' hands, no sacrifices are ever wasted or meaningless. I believe that as it grows, the Saints Anna and Simeon Society will continue to be a great source of blessings for our parishes and the Diocese.

Thank you for considering membership in this spiritual family.

Please be assured of my prayers for you and I ask for remembrance in yours.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Joseph M. Siegel
Bishop of Evansville
