

Disclaimer & Terms for Palm Springs in Colour

Quick Note

Palm Springs in Colour is a community-driven space. Participation in posts, recommendations, and link-ups is entirely voluntary, and all content is provided for informational purposes. By using this website, you agree to these terms.

Community Picks

- Recommendations shared in the Community Picks section come directly from members of the community.
- Palm Springs in Colour does not endorse, vet, or guarantee any recommendations, businesses, or services mentioned.
- Any engagement, booking, or transaction with a recommended business or individual is at your own discretion and risk.

Key takeaway: We host the space; the recommendations come from the community, not us.

Link-Ups

- Link-Ups are monthly threads where community members coordinate plans, events, or meetups.
 - Palm Springs in Colour does not supervise or guarantee any meetup, interaction, or event.
- Participation in Link-Ups is voluntary, and Palm Springs in Colour cannot be held responsible for outcomes, experiences, or safety during any community-organized activity.

Key takeaway: You connect with other community members at your own risk.

Highlights & Insider Access

- Highlights & Insider Access may include unpaid personal picks or paid partnerships.
- Inclusion of any business, event, or experience does not constitute an endorsement or guarantee of quality, safety, or availability.
 - Users engaging with highlighted events or businesses do so at their own discretion.

Key takeaway: This lane is curated intentionally, but participation or attendance is always voluntary.
