

Alpena County Horsemen's Club Presents: Horse Science Short Course

Wednesday Feb 5, 12, 19, 26,
March 4, 11, 2020

Times 6:30 – 9:00 p.m.

Alpena Community College
Natural Resources Building
Room 101

For class cancellations: go to WATZ Radio.

* Nightly giveaway drawing

- Refreshments and cookies will be provided
- 10 yrs or older to attend.

Feb 5th

Dr Liz Routh, DVM from Saginaw Equine Valley Clinic
Discussing eye and ophthalmic care. Purchase exams & identifying lameness.

Feb 12th

Tyler Cappaert/Tribute Feeds.
He is a MSU graduate with a degree in animal nutrition, business an agriculture.
Topic - Speaking on equine nutrition.

Feb 19th

Dr. Karen Waite, Coordinates the MSU horse management program.
Topic - Harnessing your fear and reconnecting with your horse.

Feb 26th

Deputy Michelle Reid, Alpena
Animal Control.
Topic – Self defense on horse back and conceal carry and the unwanted horse and dog.

March 4th

Dr Tom Dombrowski, DVM
Farm & Pet Veterinary Services.
Topic – Disease contraction, progression & treatment of nasal strangles. Additional dental care and prevention and treatment of colic.

March 11th

Brian Bannerman
B&W Ranch, Clarkston, MI.
30 years experience on training barrel & pole horses. Brian has rode and studied in almost every seat and discipline in the horse industry.
Topic – Making a better speed horse.

Checks made out to: Alpena County Horsemen's Club:
10811 Hubbard Lake Road, Hubbard Lake Mi. 49747.
Cost: $40.00 a person or second family member is $30.00 a person.
Deadline is: January 29, 2020.
Questions: (989) 255-4801 or (989) 356-0071