Use of Chapel

- The use of the Chapel for a committal service lasting no more than thirty minutes is included in the O & C fee. The use of the chapel for any service lasting longer than thirty minutes will be charged in accordance with the Chapel Fee Schedule.

Overtime

- Overtime fees will be charged when applicable in addition to the standard fee in accordance with the Overtime Fee Schedule.

Columbarium

- The Columbarium Companion Fee is for interring a second set of cremains into an existing niche that already has one set of interred cremains.

Cemetery Deeds

- A cemetery deed grants an easement for burial purposes, not title to real property.
- The record owner as shown on the Township cemetery deed records has the right to designate who may be buried in the grave.

- Cemetery deeds may be transferred only through the Township. An owner wishing to transfer a deed must provide the original deed, complete a request for transfer form and pay the transfer fee and the Township will issue a new deed to the new owner. No transfer is effective until a new deed is issued.
- If the owner of a cemetery deed is deceased, the deed will be transferred to the heir of the deceased owner if the heir provides satisfactory evidence that they have inherited the rights to the cemetery deed, completes an application for transfer and pays the transfer fee. In the event there is more than one heir, all heirs must consent to the transfer or an order from the probate court must be obtained.
- The board of Trustees may repurchase graves in a township cemetery from the owner for the original purchase price, less the repurchase fee.
